

LAYER OF FAMILY OF FIVE IS HANGED

Kammerer Makes Full
Complete Confession Before
Mounting Scaffold.

CHICAGO, Ill., Feb. 13.—John Kammerer, 27, was hanged this morning for the murder of Mr. Otto Elder and three children, at Villa Park, June 27, 1924. The body was hanging at 11 o'clock and three minutes after Kammerer was pronounced dead.

Just before he mounted the scaffold, Kammerer gave to Assistant State's Attorney Wynne a full confession. It said that Kammerer spent a great part of the day June 27, 1924, in killing father, mother and three little children.

He began at 10:30 a. m. finished at 7 that night. At 10:30 o'clock he stole into the house where Elder, a night worker, was. A blow with the ax killed him, but Kammerer rained others upon his head "to make sure."

"I had to wait in the house," he said, "until after noon to get Mrs. Elder. She was at a neighbor's. She came home to get dinner for the children. I slipped up behind her and hit her on the head. Jackie came in pretty soon and I hit him over the head. I did the same with Roy when he came in, every peddler papers and was a boy. He seemed to suspect me when I told him his folks had gone to Chicago. He ran and I chased him. He got out of the house and I climbed on the roof. I told him to come down. He ran into the dining room and hid behind a chair. I let him go to the bathroom to wash his hands and then I took him from behind."

He took Elder's watch and Mrs. Elder's wrist watch and $3 in change he found in Elder's pockets, Kammerer said.

"If I had found $100 or $200 in Elder's pockets," Kammerer said, "I would have gone to St. Louis and killed the archbishop. I would have said 'Monsieur.' Then I would pull out my gun and shoot him dead. If I could get away, I would, but if not I would kill myself. I thought I could get away, back to Chicago and get Bishop Shanahan and Father McNamee. But I could not make the rounds on $3."

Two Buttons Pushed in Hanging Man at Decatur, Ill.

CHICAGO, Ill., Feb. 13.—John Kelly of Louisville, Ky., was hanged in the county jail here today for the murder of an attorney, an attempted rape, and a holdup last November. The trap was sprung at 11:56. Two electrical buttons were pushed by Sheriff W. A. Underwood and his deputy, Ted Hill, one of which rang the trap.

Stacy yesterday called for Vice James S. Baldwin, who attended him to be hanged. "I want you to forgive me," he said, "but since coming to Central Missouri he has been taught to speak intelligibly, he has learned to read lips with ease, his hearing is being restored, and he has purchased a new school of studies into the fourth grade. Three days ago he wrote in a firm, childish hand, the honor of yesterday's anniversary of the Great Emancipator, a letter to Abraham Lincoln, which is reproduced herewith. It demonstrates his capacity to learn things taught him. He wrote a good essay, for his teacher marked '100,' and there was only one mistake, 'Kentucky.'"

He does not know about the hearing interest the Governor is taking in him. He's not a man who takes readily to strangers, since he had little to say to Post-Dispatch reporters who visited him, though when they spoke to him, he watched their lips intently and responded brightly. When his former Secretary, Nagel, saw him, the former Secretary exclaimed, "The boy must be an artist's inspiration!"

EFFORT TO STOP THE DEPORTATION OF SCHOOLBOY

Friends Intervening in Behalf of 10-Year-Old British Lad at Central Institute for Deaf.

HAS GONE FAR TO OVERCOME HANDICAPS

In Less Than Four Years
He Has Learned to Speak and Can Read Lips With Ease.

Friendly intervention is under way to defeat the letter of the immigration law that would drive from the country a 10-year-old English boy, who was born almost totally deaf, but in three and a half years' training at a noted St. Louis school has gone far to overcome his affliction.

This, the case of Arthur Cecil Mombes, is one for the spirit of the law to govern, say those who are interceding for the lad against an order of the Department of Labor that he may not remain in the United States after September.

Charles Nagel, who, as former Secretary of Commerce and Labor, administered the immigration law, and who is going to Washington next week, will take the case up with officials there. He has asked Congressman Newton to make inquiries in the meantime. As well as the Immigration Bureau, the State Department Visa Bureau and the British Embassy are interested in the case.

The letter of the law forced the head of Central Institute for the Deaf, 518 South Kingshighway, where Arthur is an eager student, to furnish $500 bond twice to protect the nation against the possibility that the boy would become a public burden, and behind a public affliction, although Central Institute is wiping out the affliction, and Arthur's parents, who are well-to-do, pay his bills promptly.

Meager Records in Case.

After the first bond was furnished, in 1923, it was amended to provide that Arthur must depart from the United States by October, 1924. The second bond, given last August, but the question has been brought up again, and immigration officials now insist that this lad must quit the country by next September, giving up the education he is receiving here. Records at Washington do not show that the second bond has been approved, and are so meager that officials would not comment on the case.

Immigration restrictions were designed to keep out this country undesirable and those who might become public burdens. Arthur assuredly does not come under the classification of "undesirable" nor the facts in the case give any ground to believe he might become a public charge.

Arthur has a winning manner and his present knowledge is evidence of the value of the education he is receiving here. Because of almost total deafness that was his from birth he did not learn to speak, but since coming to Central Institute he has been taught to speak intelligibly, he has learned to read lips with ease, his hearing is being restored, and he has purchased a new school of studies into the fourth grade. Three days ago he wrote in a firm, childish hand, the honor of yesterday's anniversary of the Great Emancipator, a letter to Abraham Lincoln, which is reproduced herewith. Abraham Lincoln.
Abraham Lincoln was born in a log cabin in Kentucky February 12, 1809. His parents were very poor. He did not go to school because there were no schools near his home. He was intelligent. He read many books and studied all alone at home near a fire. When he grew to be a man, he was the president of United States. Everybody loves him very much.

Through education obtained in St. Louis, effects of the deafness of Arthur Cecil Mombes, this lad on the window seat, have been defeated and he has learned enough to be able to write an essay like the accompanying one on Abraham Lincoln.

FURNITURE SALE AT HOME DRAWS $25 FINE

Woman, Convicted by Default,
Said to Have Admitted Being
"in Effect, a Dealer."

Mrs. H. Lewis, charged with violating a city ordinance by not stating she was a dealer, in advertisements to sell furniture from her West End "home," did not appear in Police Court today when her case was called, and was fined $25 in default by Judge Matthews.

An investigator of the Better Business Bureau testified Mrs. Lewis for several months prior to Dec. 7, when the charge was placed against her, advertised in newspapers that she was "leaving for California" and was forced to sell cheaply the furnishings of her nine-room apartment at 5004 Maple street. Her departure from St. Louis has not occurred, her latest address being 4262A Delmar boulevard, the witness said.

Two women shoppers of the bureau testified they visited the Maple avenue house on Aug. 7 and noticed the furnishings included five complete living-room sets. Mrs. Lewis' explanation of having five sets was that she "loved" them. On Sept. 1 and Dec. 7 the shoppers revisited the place and found Mrs. Lewis still there, although the furnishings had been changed each time.

E. L. Schaeffer, 5001 Vernon avenue, from whom Mrs. Lewis rented the Maple avenue residence, testified she had admitted to him that she was "in effect, a dealer," but advertised as a householder to avoid paying a dealer's license.

Oliver E. East, 2009 Morgan street, a furniture dealer, also charged with concealing his real status in advertisements, was freed when it was pointed out that in his name was omitted in one place. Recently two other dealers, similarly charged, pleaded guilty and were fined costs.

SIX-FOOT WHITE HOUSE 'COPS'

President's Aid Plans Force Rivaling Famous Potomac Guard.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—Major Oscar N. Holbert, military aid to the President, in charge of White House police, plans to build up a force rivaling the famous Potomac guard of King Frederick William I. He has issued regulations that all new White House policemen must be six feet or more.

Six members added to the force were photographed yesterday. All conformed to the regulations, ranging between six feet and six feet two. Holbert's intention, it was announced, is to create the finest police force in the country.

Drigible's Flight Postponed.

LAKEHURST, N. J., Feb. 13.—The proposed flight of the navy dirigible Los Angeles to Bermuda next Monday has been postponed until Feb. 19 or later, it was announced today. The trip to Bermuda is expected to take 10 hours.

DRIVER, FINED $800, TO TAKE 266 DAYS IN JAIL

Negro Service Car Operator
Has Been Arrested 35 Times as Traffic Violator.

James Palmer, 25 years old, negro service car driver, arrested 35 times as a traffic violator, is going to spend 266 days in the City Workhouse to satisfy $800 in fines assessed against him this week for traffic violations, according to his own announcement at City Jail today.

Palmer's $800 in fines were originally two $50 fines, imposed in Police Court last month. He appealed both fines and Wednesday Judge Calvin Miller, Court of Criminal Correction No. 1, confirmed the first fine and increased it to $500. Yesterday Judge Paul Gayer, Court of Criminal Correction No. 2, confirmed the second fine, raising it to $800.

Palmer, unable to pay the fines, was confined in jail, where he at first announced he would appeal to a higher court. Today he told a Post-Dispatch reporter he had decided an appeal would be too expensive and would ask to be sent to the Workhouse immediately to begin working out the fines at $3 a day.

Police records show that Palmer has been arrested 35 times for traffic violations and was fined on 14 occasions. He said today some of the infractions had occurred when his brother was driving his service car, claiming the brother had used his name when arrested.

The $500 fine assessed by Judge Miller was for violating a traffic policeman's signal at Eighteenth street and Washington avenue. Palmer denied violating the signal, stating in court that the policeman was prejudiced against him. The $300 fine followed Palmer's thirty-first arrest and was for parking in a restricted district.

Had Palmer decided on his present course when fined originally in Police Court he would now be preparing to leave the Workhouse instead of entering it for the better part of the year. Palmer will undoubtedly see some service in the Workhouse quarry, Superintendent Morgan announcing last year that signed for violations of the Potomac guard of King Frederick William I. He has issued regulations that all new White House policemen must be six feet or more.

Six members added to the force were photographed yesterday. All conformed to the regulations, ranging between six feet and six feet two. Holbert's intention, it was announced, is to create the finest police force in the country.

ONE TENANT TOLD OF FUMIGATION THAT KILLED MAN

Inquest Into Death of Man
Above Drug Store Continued to Obtain Report of Autopsy.

ROOMER SAYS HE CAUTIONED ANOTHER

Head of Fumigating Firm,
Who Directed Work,
Represented at Hearing
by Counsel.

The inquest into the death of John Hendricks, which followed the fumigation yesterday morning of the Westminster Pharmacy, below the rooming house operated by Hendricks' wife, at 4267A Olive street, was continued by the coroner today to obtain the report of the autopsy physician.

Testimony at the inquest, at which were present attorneys representing the fumigating company, the drug store and the widow, adduced that one tenant upstairs was notified of the intended fumigation, which followed the closing of the drug store at midnight. Hendricks was found unconscious on the kitchen floor by his wife, who was awakened by pungent odors. He died at City Hospital.

Ely Goldwasser, 446 Westminster place, one of the proprietors of the drug store, testified that he and Hugh M. Jemish of 508 North Sarah street, during the preparation for the fumigation, went upstairs and notified a roomer that he should keep his windows up as there might be an unpleasant odor resulting from the fumigation. Mac Hendley, the roomer, recalled the visit of Goldwasser and said he cautioned a roomer next to him.

As was told yesterday, the fumigation was carried out under a contract made by the S. Q. Daniel & Co., of which Elias W. Daniel, the head of the concern, supervised the placing of cyanogen chloride, a vermin exterminator, in bowls placed in the rear of the store. Daniel was held for the coroner, and was represented today by counsel.

Two employees of the fumigating concern gave detailed accounts of how the first floor and the basement of the store were sealed by paper strips. They told of repeated fumigations of stores and buildings, none of which resulted harmfully to human beings.

MAN ACCUSED OF STEALING WOMAN'S PURSE, IS CAUGHT

Prisoner Taken After Chase Down Town Was Arrested Once Before on Theft Charge.

After a chase which led through crowded Locust street yesterday afternoon, Harry Wichterman, 27 years old, 423 North Sixth street, East St. Louis, an alleged pickpocket, was captured when he sought refuge in the Chamber of Commerce Building at 511 Locust street.

The intersection of Traffic Policemen Morgid saved Wichterman from a beating at the hands of a youth, whose name was not learned, one of several men who gave chase when they said, they saw Wichterman take a purse from the pocket of Mrs. L. H. Padrucci, 4131 Locust street, as she walked along Locust street carrying her baby.

Wichterman was arrested Feb. 2 by detectives at the store of the B. Nugent & Bro. Dry Goods Co., where he was found with six shirts, alleged to have been stolen from the store. He was released on bond and was to have appeared for trial today.

U. S. HAS OBTAINED BUT ONE CONVICTION FOR WAR CRIMES

One Plea of Guilty Also Entered—Statute of Limitations Now in Effect.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—With the statute of limitations lapsed on the war crimes, Department of Justice officials find the Government has obtained one conviction and one plea of guilty out of the mass of testimony and findings turned over by the Graham "snooping" committee, four years ago.

Six other criminal cases have ended in acquittal. 15 have been or are about to be dismissed on motion of the Government, three are pending appeal and nine are pending trial. The Government fared better with its civil actions, having collected $1,700,000 in cash and $350,000 in securities at the time of the last full statement in December.

The significance of the record is that the Department of Justice, with few exceptions, can begin no more criminal indictments for overt acts during the war or immediately thereafter. The three-year statute of limitations was extended three years ago, giving the war frauds section of the department six years in which to prepare its cases.

Consequently the time for prosecution has lapsed on acts committed prior to Feb. 12, 1919, three months after the armistice. The only new war indictments which may be brought involve persons who have been outside American jurisdiction.

GUS O. NATIONS, FIVE OTHER FEDERAL HOME OFFICERS, ARE INDICTED

June 27 last with obtaining money under false pretenses, the charge being embodied in informations issued by the Circuit Attorney. Both pleaded not guilty and were released on $5000 bonds. Later Federal warrants charging use of the mails to defraud were issued against Beck and Barrett and bonds were set at $5000. The latest report from the receivers of the company a month ago indicated assets of the company would be more than 10 per cent of the total claims.

Activities of Nations.
Nations is 31 years old, a native of the Flat River region of South-east Missouri and a practicing lawyer. He was in charge of Arthur M. Hyde's campaign with Governor in St. Louis before the primary of 1920, and after Hyde became Governor he was made a deputy under the State Commission of Finance, at $2400 a year. He resigned after waiting for appointment to a better position and obtained appointment as chief Federal Prohibition Officer in St. Louis, in January, 1922.

Nations' connections with the spectacular and brought criticism from Nations' superior officers and from the courts. The late Judge Dyer, when Nations commented adversely on fines assessed by him, called Nations a "whippersnapper." The State W. C. T. U. thereupon adopted a resolution indorsing Nations.

In the New Year's eve raid at Hotel Chase, Dec. 31, 1922, Nations took his squad into the dining room and a battle with guests followed, in which a city policeman fired a shot wounding a man.

Job Later Expanded.
Nations' job was expanded when he took over the duties of group chief, field force chief and legal adviser, at a salary of $4500 a year.

In February, 1923, Nations found himself working at cross-purposes with a group of Federal investigators, which was sent here to look into reports that the making of beer was being carried on with "protection." He raided the Grisebeck Brewery when the special investigators were in the neighborhood and were about to raid it. One of the officials of the

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
LONDON, Feb. 13.—Beatrice Lillie, comedienne, who took Broadway by storm when she appeared in New York with Andre Charlot's revue, became Lady Peel today through the death of her father-in-law, Sir Robert Peel, Sir Robert's son succeeds him to the baronetcy, whose estate comprises 17,000 acres. The baronet resided at Drayton Manor, Tamworth.

Miss Lillie is on tour in the United States. She appeared in St. Louis at the Shubert-Jefferson Theater during the week of Jan. 25 last and, with Louis Audiences, the same favor which had been accorded her in New York. Her skits in the revue, "Tea Shop Talk," and "Rough Stuff," were features of the revue here.

CALLING IN THE WHEELER CASE

Three Women Office Assistants of Campbell Questioned by Grand Jury.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—Three of the office assistants of Gordon Campbell, Montana oil operator indicted in that State with Senator Wheeler, were called before the District of Columbia grand jury today in the new proceedings against the Senator and others. The three witnesses were May Gage, Constance Sjoblom and Gladys Moore.

The Government detailed a new attorney to the grand jury work. He is R. P. Stewart, a former assistant to the Attorney-General under A. Mitchell Palmer's administration, who has been retained as special counsel.

company went before the grand jury after having told the special investigators that he had paid $15,000, in installments, to C. S. Prather, State Food and Drug Commissioner. Prather was indicted and resigned his office. Later Herbert Nations, editor of the Jefferson City Post, and brother of Gus Nations, was indicted in the same case. The cases are set for trial in April.

Nations resigned last spring, to enter the Republican primary as a candidate for the nomination for Attorney-General. He was defeated by Robert W. Otto, who now holds the office.

Connection With Home Concern.
Nations' connection with the Federal Home Building Corporation began before the incorporation of that concern. Nations sent the application for incorporation to the Secretary of State Oct. 23, 1922, and asked that a charter be issued as promptly as possible. Secretary of State Becker issued the charter two days later.

The articles of association showed the shareholders as being E. H. Paulus, 5 shares; J. H. Beck, 10 shares; Gus O. Nations, 50 shares; and C. W. Beck, 125 shares. All were residents of St. Louis. These shares, Nations said, constituted the board of directors. The capital stock was $25,000, in 250 $100 shares; and it was stated that over 50 per cent had been in good faith subscribed and paid in money, and was in the custody of the directors. The purposes of the corporation were then set forth.

BANK'S FAREWELL ACT PUT CRIMP IN LAUDER'S

Court Says Piano Firm Doesn't Have to Repay Funds Placed in Night and Day.

Sir Harry Lauder would have been better off if he had not made those "farewell" appearances in St. Louis on Jan. 10 and 11, 1922. He has had nothing so far from the advance ticket sale and Circuit Judge Falkenhauer decided today that the Conroy Piano Co. does not have to give him anything. And look at all the expense he had.

The trouble was that Sir Harry, with less than his usual astuteness, picked the wrong dates for his St. Louis appearances, playing against the Night and Day Bank, which staged a farewell appearance of its own four days before Lauder's dates. The bank not only hogged public attention but its show was financed, in a way of speaking, with Lauder's money.

Big Explosion Scene.
It was this way: The Conroy Piano Co. was selling the tickets for the Lauder show and banking the money at the Night and Day. Up to Jan. 6 the company had put $1632.85 of Sir Harry's money into the Night and Day Bank. Then, on the 6th, the Night and Day blew up with a loud report, giving one of the most realistic representations of a bank explosion ever shown. The explosion scene put the link to Lauder's show. Everybody was talking about the big scene at the Night and Day. And so expensive! It was too late for Harry to put an explosion in his act. So what he got, you might say, was the smoke. And to think that $1632.85 of his money was in the big blow-off at the Night and Day.

Business Agent Acts.
His business agent, William Morris, went to the Conroy about it. They should have known better than to put the money where it would get caught like that. They would have to make it good. But they said no, it wasn't their fault. And besides, what were they getting out of the ticket sale? Nothing but glory—and incidental advertising.

There was nothing to it but to go to law. Sir Harry hated to do it, because it costs money to go to law, but he couldn't give up that $1632.95 without a struggle. They have been having since. Meaning the Night and Day has paid 57 per cent to the people who backed its show. Morris and Lauder could have had their 57 per cent, but that wasn't enough for them. They wanted all that they had put in. Now the court says the Conroy company doesn't have to refund on the tickets it sold. Lauder and his man Morris will now have to accept the 57 per cent or appeal.

BASKET OF FLOWERS FOR LOAN OF $3000

Referee Gives Jenneemann Priority Claim Against Amerika Concern.

When Theodore Jenneemann, long-time subscriber to Die Amerika, German language newspaper, joined the Amerika Publishing Co. $3000 last June, officers of the company sent him a $10 basket of flowers. A record of the purchase of the floral tribute was introduced in evidence yesterday in a hearing of bankruptcy proceedings against the publishing company in an effort to defeat Jenneemann's priority claim under a mortgage, which he delayed in recording.

Jenneemann testified he was approached by officers of the company June 27 last and advised that $3000 was needed to continue publication. Funds would be forthcoming in a few days, Jenneemann said he was told, and his money would be returned. Jenneemann advanced the money, obtained through a personal loan at the Cass Avenue Bank, and delayed recording a mortgage securing the loan until July 8, he said.

Flora's Bill Also Unpaid. On July 4 Jenneemann received a floral tribute from the officers of the company, presumably in recognition of his generosity. E. J. Plotz, a florist at 3018 South Grand boulevard, testified to delivering the $10 basket of flowers, which were charged to the Amerika Publishing Co. The bill has never been paid, Plotz testified.

Other witnesses, including the ice-man, elevator repair man and a paste manufacturer, testified that credit had been extended the Amerika during the period in which Jenneemann failed to record his mortgage. This testimony was for the purpose of defeating Jenneemann's priority claim under his mortgage. Referee Coles, however, ruled that Jenneemann had recorded the mortgage within a reasonable period, and he will receive his $3000 before other creditors are paid.

Liabilities Placed at $113,000. Debts of the Amerika Publishing Co. have been fixed at $113,000 and assets, including real estate, at $86,000. The company was placed in bankruptcy last July by three creditors presenting unpaid claims in excess of $4000. Eugene J. Sartorius, vice president of the company, was named receiver after James Dennis Flynn, Oklahoma politician and editor, who attempted the publication of an English language daily, The American, in conjunction with the German publication, was ousted as president of the concern.

CONGRESSIONAL INQUIRIES CRITICISED BY BINGHAM

Says Senate Should Act as Judicial Body Rather Than Grand Jury in Investigations.

By the Associated Press. NEW YORK, Feb. 13.—Congressional investigations were cited by Senator Hiram Bingham of Connecticut, at the Lincoln day dinner of the National Republican Club last night as evidence that the doctrine of the division of government powers into legislative, executive and judicial departments is breaking down.

"Notwithstanding our confidence in the President and in the heads of departments he has chosen, we are continually tempted to direct him to investigate this or that, when by law it is his duty to do it," he said.

"Because the Senate of the United States believed that certain officials of the Federal Government were guilty of misconduct, the Senate decided to adopt grand jury proceedings to investigate their conduct. It seems to me that the constitutional course would have been for the House of Representatives to bring an impeachment against the Federal officials and for the Senate to act as a judicial body rather than a grand jury."

AUDITOR ENDS HIS LIFE

Wife Says St. Joseph (Mo.) Man Had Suffered Nervous Breakdown.

Special to the Post-Dispatch. KANSAS CITY, Mo., Feb. 13.—Russell N. Bradley, 30 years old, auditor for the Aunt Jemimah flour mills of St. Joseph, Mo., killed himself last night by swallowing poison in the Hawthorne Hotel. He came from St. Joseph last night and dined with his wife, Mrs. Martha Bradley, of Lavita Hall. Then they went to the Hawthorne Hotel where they had lived before. Mrs. Myrtle Rowan, who conducts it, is a friend of the family.

At midnight, Dr. Harold B. Clark, the family physician, received a telephone call from Bradley. "Come over quickly," Bradley said. "I've swallowed poison and am dying. I couldn't stand it any longer."

Dr. Clark found Bradley still conscious. He died a few minutes later.

Plumber Thought He Needed New Pipes

My stomach and intestines were always full of gas and I often had severe colic attacks. The pain and soreness caused me to think I needed a new set of pipes. Since taking Ma's Wonderful Remedy all this has disappeared and my only trouble now is to make enough dough to buy all the food I'd like to eat. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Write Wilson Drug Co., Judge & Tolson Drug Stores and Druggists Everywhere.

NINE SURVIVED 3 MINE BLASTS; DIED FROM GAS

Pencil Note in German Pit, Where 130 Perished, Tells of Fight for Life.

Copyright, 1925 by the Press and Publisher Publishing Co., the New York World and the Post-Dispatch.
ESSEN, Germany, Feb. 13.—Pushed under tons of earth and fully by gas, more than 130 miners were killed in the Minister Stein mine in a fire-damp explosion. At 8 p. m. Wednesday, the night shift, 139 men had gone into the pit, regarded as among the safest in the world. One explosion put out the lights and wrecked the ventilating system. Two others followed in rapid succession and brought down the supports of the surface, practically all the men were caught under masses of falling coal and rock. Those who survived in protected niches were mostly seized with panic and rushed out to be ground to death or caught in the gas-filled galleries. Only nine of them made their way to the surface and eight of these may die. As the rescuers dug feverishly through the debris of the choked passages they came to one open space and the story of those who survived the three blasts. Pencil on a bit of paper on the floor of the pit was a note: "All well until 11 o'clock. We are nine." Beside the bit of paper lay nine bodies. They had been killed slowly, agonizingly, by the creeping fumes. The same gas met the men who were digging in frantic effort to save any of their comrades who might remain alive. Two of these rescuers were added to the list of fatalities. They were caught in a gas filled gallery and died before they could escape into the open air. Nearly all the victims lived in the village of Kirdorf. The Minister Stein mine is the property of the Hugo Stinnes estate and lies in the heart of the most communistic section of the radical Ruhr. Workers gathered in groups and blamed the employers for the explosion.

LEGION ENTERTAINS G. A. R. VETERANS IN COUNTY

J. C. Kiskaddon, at Lincoln Day Dinner, Tells Younger Men to Stand by Constitution. Lincolnian in brevity was the Lincoln day speech of J. C. Kiskaddon of Kirdorf, veterans of the Civil War, at a banquet given surviving members of Brewster Post by the American Legion members of St. Louis County. Brewster Post, which has nine members, recently had to disband because of their infirmities. The American Legion, on Lincoln's Birthday gave the Civil War veterans a farewell dinner at Carsonville Inn, Carsonville, Mo., last night. "We who are about to die salute you," said Kiskaddon, as he addressed the World War veterans. "And we entrust to you the Constitution. One by one we are dropping off. Soon we will all be gone. Stand by the Constitution. Fight for it as we have fought! And resist to your utmost all efforts of organizations to discriminate against American citizens because of race, creed or color." Walter Drakesmith, World War veteran and son of a Civil War soldier, was toastmaster. The G. A. R. veterans present besides Kiskaddon were Henry Seibel, Manchester; J. B. Pollard, Overland; S. D. Webster, Webster Groves; M. H. Popper, Ferguson; Carl Ringler of Manchester road; F. W. Drakesmith of Maplewood, and J. D. Sanborn of Vinita Park.

RETAIL PRICE OF GASOLINE NOW 21.9 CENTS A GALLON

Increase of Two Cents, the Fourth Advance Since Jan. 22, Effective Here Today. The fourth increase in the price of gasoline since Jan. 22 went into effect today, bringing the retail charge at filling stations in St. Louis and vicinity to 21.9 cents a gallon. The latest advance is for 2 cents a gallon and comes on the heels of three rapid one-cent increases. In other words, the consumer paid $1.12 for five gallons today where yesterday he paid $1, and where less than a month ago he paid 85 cents. This, of course, includes the State good roads tax of 2 cents a gallon, which went into effect Jan. 1, and a city tax of half a cent. This advance, like the others, was said to be due to a rapid rise of crude oil in the fields and applies to all of the 11 states in the territory of the Standard Oil Co. of Indiana, which include Missouri and Illinois. Independent companies immediately followed suit when the Standard Co. announced the increase yesterday. Even including the 2-cent tax, however, gasoline still is below the peak price of 1924 when, early in the summer, it sold for 24 cents a gallon. By Sept. 12, it had fallen to 14.9 cents where it remained until the State tax went into effect.

World Did Not End, Kills Self. By the Associated Press. CLEVELAND, O., Feb. 13.—Charles Ford, 35 years old, despondent because the end of the world prophecies failed to materialize a week ago, hanged himself in the basement of his home in Garfield Heights today, according to village police. It was at Ford's home, police say, that scores of followers of the Rowenite sect gathered last Friday night to await the end of the world.

BETTER THAN WHISKEY
FOR COLDS AND FLU

The sensation of the drug trade is Aspirinal, the two-minute cold and cough reliever, authoritatively guaranteed by the laboratories; tested, approved and most enthusiastically endorsed by the highest authorities, and proclaimed by the people as ten times as quick and effective as whiskey, rock and fire, or any other cold and cough remedy they have ever tried.

All drug stores are supplied with the wonderful elixir, so all you have to do is to step into the nearest drug store, hand the clerk half a dollar for a bottle of Aspirinal and tell him to serve you two teaspoons.

ful. With your watch in your hand, take the drink at one swallow and call for your money back in two minutes if you cannot feel the distressing symptoms of your cold fading away like a dream, within the time limit. Don't be bashful, for all druggists invite you and expect you to try it. Everybody's doing it. Take the remainder of the bottle home to your wife and children, for Aspirinal is by far the safest and most effective, the easiest to take and the most agreeable cold and cough remedy for children as well as adults. Quickest relief for ear, throat and children's coughing up at night.

NATIONS IN TEACHABLE
MOOD, MOTT ASSERTS

Y. M. C. A. Official Says They Should Be Helped to Assume Right International Feeling.

Economic and political difficulties which will confront the next generation were discussed by John R. Mott, general secretary of the International Y. M. C. A., in an address last night at a dinner given at Hotel Chase by the metropolitan board of the St. Louis Y. M. C. A. W. Palmer Clarkson, president of the Chamber of Commerce, presided at the dinner.

"The hours of leisure and pleasure of our present generation are to last but a short time," Dr. Mott declared. "The coming youth of this land and of the earth will be loaded with a difficult economic situation."

"The nations of the world have come to a plastic condition of mind. Shall they be allowed to mold into materialism and militarism, or shall we assist in seeing that they assume the right form in the brotherhood of man and right international feeling? The nations are now humble and teachable. The time is ripe for a change in world feeling and thought."

The speaker declared bolshevism to be "a deadly disease." He spoke of the Y. M. C. A. as the organization best calculated to perform the needed constructive, international service.

REBEL LEADER IS KILLED
By the Associated Press
TRIPOLE, Cirenaica, Feb. 12.—The rebel leader, Hibrabim Seiten, who escaped from Caraboudi the day the Italians occupied the Sirte region, has been killed in battle by soldiers of Abdul Lefel, Mahar in Pezzan. His death has greatly impressed the natives, as he was considered the last important person connected with the rebellion against Italy throughout Libya.

ST. LOUIS-CHICAGO AIR MAIL FUNDS URGED

Assistant Postmaster-General Appeals to House Committee for $250,000.

Post-Dispatch Bureau, 20-22 Wyatt Building, WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—Col. Paul Henderson, Second Assistant Postmaster-General, today told the House Appropriations Committee why $250,000 should be made available for the establishment of air mail service by private contract, as provided by the Kelly bill, which was signed by President Coolidge last week.

This was the first intimation that Gen. H. M. Lord, Director of the Federal Budget, had approved the appropriation of a "revolving" fund to be used in connecting St. Louis and Chicago, with the transcontinental air mail route. Henderson had asked the Budget Bureau for approval of a $1,000,000 appropriation. He said today, however, that the $250,000 appropriation would be enough to insure establishment of lines between St. Louis and Chicago and Salt Lake City and Los Angeles.

The Robertson Aircraft Corporation of St. Louis has assured Henderson it is prepared to transport mail to and from Chicago by airplane if a suitable contract can be arranged.

PRESIDENT TO FINISH SPEECH

Special to the Post-Dispatch. WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—It has been announced that President Coolidge will speak at a celebration of the 100th anniversary of the first Norwegian settlement in Minnesota, to be held on the State Fair Grounds at Hamline, Minn., June 8.

Mr. Coolidge will thus be enabled to finish a speech that he started on the Fair Grounds in 1922, when he was Vice President. On that occasion, while he was talking about the pleasures of farm life, somebody in the audience belated, "Where in the hell have you been the last two years?" and the crowd walked out on him.

French Bread Price to Be Increased. PARIS, Feb. 13.—The price of bread will be increased from one franc, 55 centimes (normally about 21 cents, but now about 5 cents) to one franc, 60 centimes a kilogram (2.2 pounds), beginning Feb. 16.

Return to Gold Standard Urged. GENEVA, Feb. 13.—Immediate return to the gold standard by all countries which have a stabilized currency is urged by the League of Nations Finance Committee in a report just issued as the most desirable way to accelerate the economic recovery of the world. It was announced that Czechoslovakia had decided to create an independent bank issue to determine the exact gold content of its monetary unit.

IMPERIAL THEATER SUES TO GET POSSESSION OF BUILDING

Seeks to Dispossess 22 Tenants of Stifel Estate Structure on Which It Holds Lease.

Suit to compel 22 tenants of the Imperial Building at Tenth and Pine streets to surrender possession of the property to the Imperial Theater Co. was filed yesterday in the Circuit Court. The suit also asks $100,000 damages for unlawful detention since March 1, 1921. The suit is sequel to one brought by the Stifel Estate Co., owner of the property, seeking to void the Imperial Co. lease for rent under a lease which has until 1927 to run. The Imperial Co. contends that if the lease still is good, it is entitled to possession of the property. The present tenants rent from the Stifel Estate, having made new leases after the building was remodeled.

According to the attorney of the Imperial Co., the owner of the property failed to make repairs on the building and, owing to the bad condition of the walls and roof, the Director of Public Safety of the city declined to issue a permit to reopen the theater, which was then in the building. Consequently, he said, the theater company declined to pay more rent until the building was repaired, and the Stifel Estate filed suit under the lease.

WEALTHY BACHELOR DENIES HE PROPOSED TO DANGER

By the Associated Press. NEW YORK, Feb. 13.—H. Gordon Duval, wealthy bachelor, said today he would consult attorneys regarding possible retaliatory action against Ivy St. Claire, musical comedy dancer, who has brought suit for $100,000 against him charging breach of promise to marry.

He denied Miss St. Claire's charge that he had proposed to her last July with a promise of a life of "luxury and ease." The dancer asserts that as a result of his change toward her she has become a "mental wreck."

"Ivy St. Claire is the merest of abstract acquaintances," said Duval, "and is obviously seeking publicity at my expense. If it is possible to file suit on such grounds then every man is risking a suit when he calls a girl by her first name."

Referring to the statement of Miss St. Claire's attorney that the dancer has several letters written by him, Duval said he had addressed only two cards to her. "One accompanied a little corsage bouquet which I sent in lieu of a motor ride one evening," he said.

Some of the communications which Miss St. Claire's attorney exhibited were in rhyme.

BORROWED FROM KIN, LANDLORD AND BANK

J. L. Sager, Bankrupt Manufacturer, Says He Never Regained $60,000 Lost in 1921.

"Borrowed Money" would be a fitting title for the testimony of Jacob L. Sager, bankrupt women's apparel manufacturer, who testified before Referee Coles yesterday that, following financial reverses in 1921, he borrowed sums ranging up to $3000 from his mother, father-in-law, sister, brother-in-law, a bank, three loan companies, and his landlord.

Sager, who formerly operated the
J. L. Sager Manufacturing Co., 907 Washington avenue, claims to have lost $60,000 during the 1921 business slump. "I never could catch up after that," he testified. "I kept swimming and swimming, but I never reached shore."

The borrowing began shortly after the 1921 loss, Sager testified.
He obtained $3000 from his mother, Mrs. Lena Shactman, 1422
Hamilton avenue, giving her a third deed of trust on an apartment house in University City in which he has an equity. The other relatives the bank, and the loan companies were also "touched," Sager testified, and finally the landlord, Eugene Morganthal, owner of a warehouse at Tenth and Wash streets, which Sager rented.

The landlord, who was also something of a personal friend, is listed in Sager's schedule of liabilities as having $375 due him for money borrowed. Sager lists his total liabilities at $14,000, with assets of machinery and raw materials valued at $5000. He filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy when he found he could no longer obtain credit to operate his business.

Sager was subjected to a searching cross-examination when Referee Coles discovered two automobiles listed in the bankruptcy schedule. Both cars had been purchased since the borrowing had started, Sager admitted. One, a Studebaker sedan, belongs to his wife, he testified; the other, a Ford roadster, is his, Sager said, and is not fully paid for.

"I needed a car for business,"
Sager said. "When things went bad
I had to be salesman, manager, cutter, bookkeeper, everything. I needed that Ford to get around to see the trade."

The Referee said he "couldn't understand it," and continued the hearing until Feb. 19 for further investigation by the trustee.

KINGDOM OF THE HEDJAZ IS REPORTED COMPLETE RUIN

London Paper Also Says That the City of Jeddah Has Fallen
Before Enemy.

By the Associated Press.
LONDON, Feb. 13.—A special article in the Morning Post today asserts that the kingdom of Hed-jaz now is completely in ruin and that the city of Jeddah, where King Ali's troops have been holding out against Ibn Saud, has fallen.

The article adds that Medina and

2 YEARS AND $500 FINE FOR ALTERING BOND

M. H. Wilson, Former Kirkwood Bank Cashier, Put Own Name on Security.

Mark H. Wilson, former cashier of the Kirkwood Trust Co., was sentenced to serve two years in the penitentiary and pay a fine of $500 by United States District Judge Faris today on a plea of guilty to charges of altering a $1000 Liberty bond.

He was arrested last spring after it was discovered that the bond, which was the property of Mrs. Matilda Jones, a depositor of the Kirkwood Trust Co., had been altered and used as collateral for a loan by Wilson. It developed that Wilson had substituted his name for that of the owner of the bond and had also altered the registry number of the bond.

Wilson borrowed $900 on the bond at the Bank of Kirkwood, investigation showed. The forgery was discovered after the loan had been repaid and the bond, in the course of further transactions, had come to the Merchants-Laclede National Bank. R. Wayne Ely, counsel for Wilson, asked a jail sentence and fine for his client, pointing out that Wilson has four small children and a wife. Before the Court had assessed the penitentiary sentence, the option of withdrawing the plea and standing trial was offered, but not accepted. The Court first set the fine at $1000, but cut it to $500 when Ely said that any amount cut from the fine would go to the support of Wilson's wife and children. A brother of the former cashier will pay the fine, Ely said.

PERMIT GRANTED FOR BUS LINE TO EAST ST. LOUIS
East St. Louis & Suburban Co. Also Plans Motor Freight Service.

A permit to operate motor busses over the Municipal Bridge was granted to the East St. Louis & Suburban Railway Co. by the Board of Public Service.

The new bus line running from Tenth street and Piggott avenue, East St. Louis, to Broadway and Chestnut street, St. Louis, will be inaugurated within the next 10 days, officials of the railway company said. The route, as stipulated in the permit, is from Tenth street and Piggott avenue, via the bridge to Seventh street, north to Chestnut street, east to Broadway, south to Gratiot street, west to Seventh street, and thence over the same route. The permit requires a $10,000 surety bond and sets the maximum fare at 10 cents.

Plans for the establishment of freight and express service by motor truck between East St. Louis and some 20 nearby towns on the East Side were made public today through the filing of an application with the Illinois Commerce Commission at Springfield by the East St. Louis & Suburban Railway Co., asking for permission to operate the lines.

According to W. H. Sawyer, president of the East St. Louis & Suburban, the trucks would be operated in conjunction with the railway lines, the object being to facilitate the handling of freight and express between towns already being served by electric car lines. Electric freight and express cars now serving these points, he said, would continue in use.

Among the principal towns served by the truck lines would be Collinsville, Belleville, Edwardsville, Alton, East Alton, Caseyville, Lebanon, O'Fallon, Mitchell, Granite City and Madison.

A THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Chronic coughs and persistent colds lead to serious lung trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with twofold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and kills the germ.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by the medical fraternity as the greatest healing agency for the treatment of chronic coughs and colds and other forms of throat and lung troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and destroys the germs that lead to consumption.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of chronic coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, catarrhal bronchitis and other forms of throat and lung diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or the flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold, no matter how long standing, is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. Creomulsion Co., Atlanta, Ga.

POLICE INSURE QUIET FUNERAL FOR MARSEILLES RIOT VICTIMS

List of French Catholics Beaten by Communists During Night of Disorder Is Near 200.
Copyright, 1933, by the Press and Publisher Publishing Co., Inc., New York World and the Post-Dispatch.

MARSEILLES, Feb. 12.—Heavy police guards insured peaceful burial of the two victims of the riot between communists and Fascists on the occasion of Gen. de Castelnau's speech here Tuesday. Mayor Flashier published warnings against disorders and the police this time had orders to act on the first sign of rioting. Marseilles, however, passed a nervous day.

The Mayor is accused of permitting the communists a free hand on the night of the riot and was asked in a public letter by the widow of one of the victims, Louis Vian, to remain away from the funeral. Bishop Champavier of Marseilles, in a funeral address which he ordered read in all Catholic churches, expressed the church's appreciation of "those who died for it." He declared the church in France is being "again persecuted" and is grateful to those who were insulted, mistreated, beaten and wounded.

The list of those beaten on Tuesday has now grown to 200 or more. One of them was a priest, 48 years old, Vian, was killed by an Italian communist, Ricardo Caretti, who is a refugee from his own country. This has caused high feeling between the people of Marseilles and a large number of Italian workmen here, many of whom, like Caretti, are members of local communist organizations.

POPE PIUS OBSERVES THIRD ANNIVERSARY OF CORONATION

Separation of Men and Women an Innovation at Ceremony—French Policy Saddens Pontiff.
Copyright, 1933, by the Press and Publisher Publishing Co., Inc., New York World and the Post-Dispatch.

ROME, Feb. 12.—Pope Pius celebrated the third anniversary of his coronation yesterday, but it was observed that he appeared sad, though robust. It is said the withdrawal of the French embassy to the Vatican weighs heavily on his mind.

One innovation was introduced in the morning's function. Men and women were separated, even the members of the "Black" aristocracy, which remains faithful to the papal ideas of temporal power. One of the guards had considerable difficulty explaining to the wife of a foreign diplomat that she could not sit beside her husband.

The aristocracy and the diplomatic corps had rows of benches opposite the papal throne instead of occupying boxes built for the occasion.

Man Found Dead in Box Car.
By the Associated Press.

QUINCY, Ill., Feb. 12.—Walter Wiedman, 32 years old, bridge carpenter, was found dead in a box car in the local railroad yards last night. He had apparently been dead about 48 hours. There was no evidence of an unnatural death.

New Discovery Stiff, Sore, Swollen

Soaks right into tendons and ligaments of your joints—right where the trouble starts—Then blessed comfort comes quickly.

Yes! It's true—the world progresses. All you have to do nowadays to liberate that stiff, rusty knee joint is to immerse it in a half inch of miracle working substance from a tube.

Then rub it on the offending part for about a minute or until it soaks through the skin and disappears on its errand of mercy.

Then read the evening newspapers and go to bed.

The chances are that your misbehaving knee joint will lose its "crack" while you are dreaming about the high fences you used to leap when you were a young man.

New Discovery Limbers Up Stiff, Sore, Swollen Joints

Sticks right into tendons and ligaments of your joints—right where the trouble starts—Then blessed comfort comes quickly.

"And in the morning," says one who has tried the new discovery, "you'll feel so happy that you'll want to jump into your sportiest clothes and walk briskly down the street just to show the neighbors that you are not as old as they think you are."

Joint-Ease they call this wonder-working substance, for the reason that when ordinary remedies fail to limber up the stiff, inflamed rheumatic joint, or reduce the swelling, Joint-Ease succeeds.

It's a good name for a good, clean, penetrating preparation that in just a few months has proven to a multitude of people that large, swollen, distorted joints can speedily have the kinks taken out of them and work as smoothly as ever.

But Joint-Ease is for better joints, whether in knee, ankle, arm, hip, shoulder, spine or finger, and for that purpose it's a big supply of the high fennel you use to keep when you were a youngster.

Then read the evening newspapers and go to bed.

The chances are that your misbehaving knee joint will lose its "kink" while you are dreaming about the high fennel you use to keep when you were a youngster.

HOW DOCTORS TREAT COLDS AND THE FLU

To break up a cold over night or to cut short an attack of grippe, influenza or sore throat, physicians and druggists are now recommending Calotabs, the nausealess Calomel tablet, that is purified from dangerous and sickening effects. Those who have tried it say that it acts like magic, by far more effective and certain than the old style calomel, heretofore recommended by physicians.

One or two Calotabs at bed time with a swallow of water—that's all. No salts, no nausea nor the slightest interference with eating, work or pleasure. Next morning your cold has vanished and your system feels refreshed and purified. Calotabs are sold only in original sealed packages, price ten cents for the vest-pocket size; thirty-five cents for the large family package. Recommended and guaranteed by druggists. Your money back if you are not delighted.

HUGHES SPEAKS ON VALUE OF STATE CONTROL

Declares Congress Cannot Well Bear Greater Burden of Government Than Now.

"RANCOR OF PRESS" IS DISAPPEARING

Declares America Is Solicitous to Avoid Entanglements—Wants Fomenters of Ill Will Quiet.

By Leased Wire From the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch, NEW YORK, Feb. 13.—Secretary of State Hughes, speaking at the Lincoln day dinner of the National Republican Club in the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, repeated a statement made by Lincoln 85 years ago which he said was true today—that destruction cannot come to the American nation from abroad; if it comes, the American people must be its author and finisher.

Elaborating this theme, he declared last night that all our problems, national and international, have their beginnings at home and the solution lies there.

"Since Lincoln's day we have tripled our population and multiplied our national wealth many times," Hughes said. "How shall we conserve our advantages? What Lincoln said in his young manhood, 88 years ago, is still true: 'At what point is the approach of danger to be expected?' I answer, if it ever reaches us it must spring amongst us; it cannot come from abroad. If destruction be our lot, we must ourselves be its author and finisher. As a nation of free men, we must live through all time or die by suicide."

Advantage of Decentralization.

In referring to national problems of government, Hughes declared that while we find ourselves with many political divisions which seem artificial, they are unchangeable because firmly established in sentiment and afford the "inescapable advantage of decentralized authority."

"If we did not have States," he said, "our situation would be precarious indeed. We could not contemplate with composure any greater burden upon the bent shoulders of our representatives in Congress. The first lesson in civics is that efficient government should begin at home."

"If the citizens of New York City have not sufficient civic interest and organizing ability to meet adequately their own obvious needs, it is with poor grace that they criticize lost motion in Washington. The trouble is not with our system, but in applying the power that is going to waste."

Avoiding Entanglements.

"If we have a mission," Hughes said in referring to foreign affairs, "it can be prospered only in the spirit of reasonableness. We are constantly seeking to promote peace in this hemisphere, but this can be done only as we convince the people of our sister republics that we respect them, that we do not threaten their independence, and that we are ready with wise, friendly and impartial counsel."

"We are solicitous throughout the world to avoid commitments and entanglements so that whatever contingencies arise we may be free, not to exercise an arbitrary choice, but to follow the dictates of reason and conscience, to take the action approved by an enlightened people. This freedom and our detachment from age-long racial and national conflicts make our influence the greater. But we can never be just to ourselves and refuse the co-operation in the interest of peace and mutual helpfulness which is made possible by our independence and does not forfeit it."

"We are now at peace with the world and the opportunities of friendship are open on every hand. If the turbulent spirits among us whose aim seems to be to foment ill will, to turn friends into enemies, to erect between well-disposed peoples the barriers of lying imputations of motive and action, could only be quieted; if those who are loudest in vaunting their patriotism would do less harm to their country; if some of our advisers would be as astute in finding ways out of trouble as they are in getting us into trouble; if we could sound the note, not of an ignoble racism or of a truculent chauvinism, but of a noble reasonableness, we should be thrice armed and be secure in a just influence to which no one could set bounds."

"The only serious threat to labor in this country," he continued, "is the threat of political instability and of the unemployment which would come from the destruction of the confidence which is the vital breath of enterprise."

Negro Hanged at Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 13.—Carroll Gibson, 19-year-old negro, was hanged early today at the Maryland Penitentiary for attacking a white woman Aug. 27 last, in Talbot County.

BORAH COMMITTEE
FOR NEW ELECTION
FUND LEGISLATION

Urges That Limit on Expenditures Be Based on Size and Population of States.

REPORTS ON COST OF LAST CAMPAIGN

Wants Congress to Consider Danger of Collecting Bulk of Funds in Few States.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—Congress should give serious consideration to the practice of political organizations in collecting large sums of money in certain states for use in influencing elections in other states, the special Senate campaign investigating committee says in a report filed by Chairman Borah. Besides this recommendation, the committee proposes enactment of the corrupt practices act recently approved by the Senate, as a rider to the postal pay and rate increase bill now is pending. Moreover, the committee suggests that in perfecting the corrupt practice laws an effort be made to accommodate the limit of expenditure by candidates for Federal office to the size and population of the state. It says it is neither wise nor just to fix the same amount for a candidate in a state with a population of 1,000,000 as in a state with a population of 7,000,000 or more.

What Committees Spent. Besides these recommendations for legislation, the report contains detailed accounts of receipts, expenditures and contributions, as given by the national committees of the three major political parties for the last campaign.

The report says the investigation conducted in the closing days of the 1921 campaign show that: The Republican National Committee collected $1,349,478 and expended $4,570,402. The Democratic National Committee collected $321,037 and expended $903,968.

The Progressive or Independent National Committee collected $221,827 and expended $221,872. While making no reference to the La Follette charges of the collection of a huge Republican "slush fund" to control the election, the report says that, although some inaccuracies may be found in the figures presented "it believes the report gives the facts."

The committee's inquiry followed the publication of the La Follette charges and much of its attention was devoted to them.

Collection of Funds. One of the allegations by Senator La Follette, was that the Republican organization was collecting large sums in Eastern States for use in the Northwestern States. The testimony was that the Republican committee obtained the great bulk of its funds in New York, Pennsylvania and Illinois, and that the Democratic organization got most of its funds from either one or two other states.

With respect to the practice of using funds from one state in another, the report says:

"This may well become the subject of abuse and lead to evil and corrupt practices and results. The committee calls this feature of campaign collections and expenditures particularly to the consideration of Congress and believes that in the matter of future legislation it should have serious consideration."

What Committee Recommends. The corrupt practice not recommended by the committee is that proposed by Senator Walsh (Dem.) of Massachusetts. It would require all political committees, national, state, congressional or others functioning in a general election to make periodical reports of receipts and expenditures during and after a campaign.

There would be no limit to the amount of expenditures by a national committee in a presidential campaign, but in the case of congressional campaigns candidates for the House of Representatives would be limited to $2500, and candidates for the United States Senate to $10,000.

There is a proviso, however, under which in place of this limitation, such candidates could expend an amount equal to three cents for each vote cast in the preceding general election, but in no event could this sum exceed $25,000 in the case of a senatorial candidate and $5000 in the case of a candidate for the House.

BAKER, DAVIS AND NEWTON SPEAK AT LINCOLN DINNER

Assistant Secretary of War in Kansas City Address Compares Coolidge to War President.

GOVERNOR STRESSES
IDEA OF ECONOMY

St. Louis Congressman, Emphasizing America's Part in World War, Opposes Debt Cancellation.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
KANSAS CITY, Mo., Feb. 13.—Gov. Baker of Missouri, Dwight F. Davis, Assistant Secretary of War, and Congressman Newton of St. Louis were among the speakers at the Lincoln day banquet of the Association of Young Republicans of Missouri.

Davis, in his address "last night said:

"Many of the qualities of Lincoln remind us of that other public servant who is today our chief magistrate, Calvin Coolidge. The same meager simplicity characterized his boyhood and his early manhood—the same disdain of show and pomp—the same grasp of the eternal verities that underlie and sustain both private character and national existence."

"His directness of action, his avoidance of ostentation, his simplicity and frugality of speech, his ability to cut through the husks of nonessentials and find the kernel of truth, his even greater ability to state facts clearly because stated simply, remind us of Lincoln."

Stern Sense of Justice.
"Like Lincoln, our President has a stern sense of justice, believes in economy in public and private affairs, has a high devotion to duty, has the courage of his convictions, puts public service above personal or party advantage, has an unswerving personal and public integrity, is modest, patient and firm, has a reverent respect for women and womanhood, is of a deeply religious nature and has a firm belief in God and the power of prayer as it shapes the life of individuals and the destinies of nations."

Gov. Baker's Speech.
Gov. Baker spoke of economy in government. He said:

"Government has become expensive because the standard of living has changed. In some instances the increased cost is justified, but it is the duty of all in authority and all good citizens to hold such cost to the minimum. When our great Lincoln became President there were fewer than one public official for every 800 adult citizens. Today there is one Government employe, according to the report of the National Industrial Conference Board, for every 16 persons over 16 years of age. This is a heavy load on the shoulders of the government."

Against Debt Cancellation.
Congressman Newton opposed cancellation of the allied debt to the United States, saying:

"The United States made a large contribution to aid the allies in winning the World War. We raised an army of 4,000,000 men; we lost 70,000 lives; it is costing us $450,000,000 a year to care for our maimed and crippled soldiers; we expended $40,000,000,000 during the conflict; and in addition to all this we loaned to the allies a sum total of $12,000,000,000. Having made our full contribution toward winning the war, the Republican party, under the leadership of Calvin Coolidge, believes that these loans to the allies should be paid, and if the nations of Europe that borrowed the money will pay the debts they owe us, we can reduce our obligations and relieve our tax burdens to the extent of more than a billion dollars a year."

Why Women Avoid Politics.
Mrs. Lon O. Hocker of St. Louis said: "Women will shun politics until it is clean."

"You ask why women, longing for a voice in their country's affairs, after obtaining it have refused to play their part," she said.

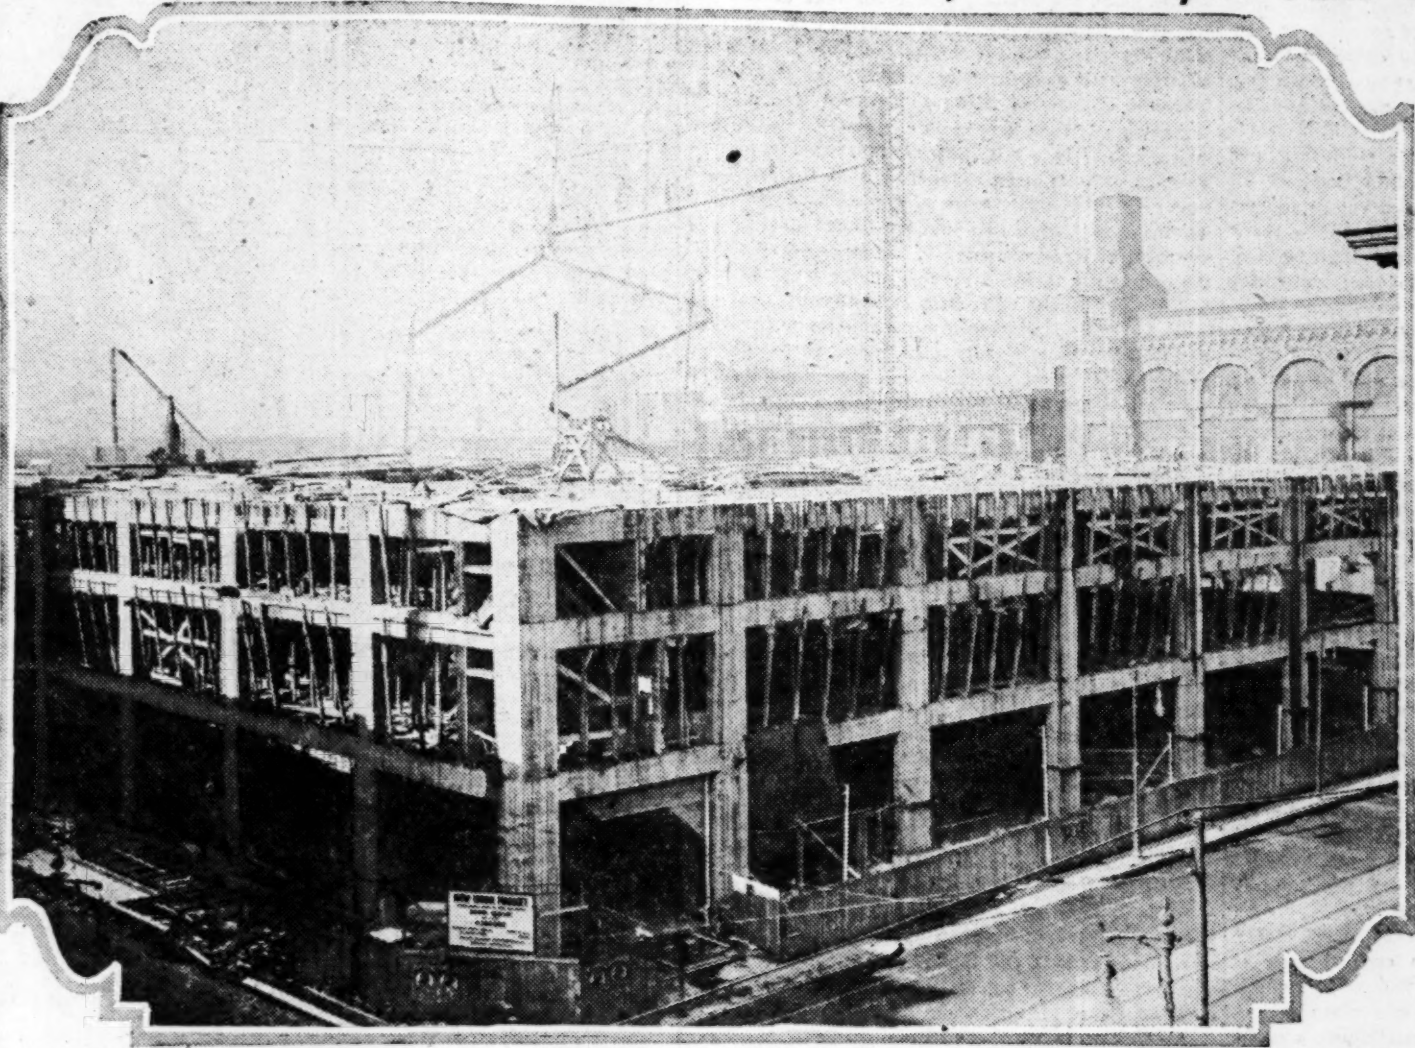

"The League of Women Voters recently admitted that in six years of work it has scarcely increased the vote more than 1 per cent."

The answer is clear and plain—women as a whole will not play a crooked game. They know they cannot win—the cards are stacked against them. Women are tired of a dry platform and a wet covenant. Men have become hardened, but most women never will be. They are patriotic, but until you clean politics they will never come in."

Mrs. Hocker said women demanded that the rules of the game

MAKING A BETTER ST. LOUIS—NO. 3

Present Condition of New Union Market, to Be Open June 1.

This picture shows the present condition of the new Union Market and public garage, which will be the first large project to be completed under the city's $57,372,500 bond issue voted two years ago. It is expected to be ready for occupancy by June 1.

The market will occupy the main floor, with store and service rooms in the basement. Latest types of material and construction will be used in the counters, refrigerators, etc., including much use of white tile and glass counters for easy cleaning and protection of foods.

There will be three upper floors for automobile storage, the concrete frame of the top floor remaining to be poured. Erection of the brick outer walls has begun. In the corner of the structure, in the foreground, may be seen the automobile entrance, with a ramp leading to the second story.

The site is the block bounded by Broadway, Lucas avenue, Sixth and Morgan streets, where the antiquated and unsanitary Union Market once stood. This view is from the Broadway and Lucas corner, looking northwest. The building is costing $1,000,000, under the $1,250,000 market bond item. It will bring in rent for market space and car storage. Inclusion of $125,000 from this item in the 1925 budget has been asked for a new open-shelter construction at Seward Market.

This is the third of a series of pictures in the Post-Dispatch showing what St. Louis is gaining from its bond issue.

Lincoln Lives Again for De Molay Boys Who Make Pilgrimage to His Tomb

258 Members of Order From St. Louis and County Among Those Who Pay Tribute at Springfield Shrine.

Abraham Lincoln became a living spirit yesterday to 258 boys from the De Molay chapters of St. Louis and St. Louis County who, upon the 116th anniversary of his birth, were pilgrims to the Lincoln shrine at Springfield, Ill.

By that pilgrimage for them, the emancipator's spirit was free from the trappings of patriotic myth, and Lincoln, the man, stepped forth, kind and sympathetic, loving and charitable, as his neighbors knew him; but rock-firm, strong to do, to hear and to uphold; heroically human, discreetly wise, and eternally just.

These boys, and brothers in their order to the number of almost 1000, trod the ground that Lincoln trod. They gazed upon old scenes, to the familiar. They visited his home, the only spot of ground he ever owned and to which there had come that historic committee from the Chicago Convention to notify him of his nomination. They walked across the floor whereon he used to lie with head propped on a chair while reading. They saw on every hand pictures, furniture, mementoes and old relics hallowed to America by their associations.

Visit Old Capitol.
They saw the old State Capitol, beautiful and quaint, where he had accepted the challenge hurled by Douglas in his "House Divided" speech. They wandered through busy streets, half new half old, where suddenly "Here Lincoln had his office," "Here he lived," and "Here he wrote his first inaugural address."

And then they journeyed to his tomb, climbing that Oak Ridge Hill where the crest of monument flings up its shield, a symbol standing as a bronze plaque: "Here Lincoln had his office," "Here he lived," and "Here he wrote his first inaugural address."

Upon that hill for more than an hour they stood in snow on frozen ground, braving the chill of a February wind, and listened to high tribute to the martyred liberator.

Then reverently upon his tomb they laid their wreaths, these boys of De Molay, near those of President Coolidge, Lloyd George and Paderewski. Their bugle sounded "taps." Then they dispersed.

Those who had talked to them were Gov. Len Small of Illinois; W. E. Simpson, representing the city of Springfield; the Rev. D. J. Evans of Kansas City and C. H. Spillman of Edwardsville, Ill. The wreath was laid on Lincoln's tomb by Louis G. Lower of Kansas City, the first member of the order of De Molay.

Participating in the exercises at the tomb were about 200 De Molay boys from Kansas City and Western Missouri, 100 members of Kansas chapters, almost 300 from St. Louis, St. Louis County and nearby towns, and members from Chicago, Milwaukee, Racine, Wis.; Peoria, Bloomington, Decatur, Jacksonville and other Illinois towns. The pilgrimage inaugurated what the grand council hopes to make an annual event of nation-wide appeal among its memberships, although it was said yesterday by Roy E. Dickerson of Kansas City, director of De Molay activities, that future visits will be made in summer.

Youngsters Were Hungry.
Jacques De Molay, the great crusader for whom the order is named, never assailed a Saracen horde with greater vigor than the St. Louis delegates attacked their lunch in the high school cafeteria at Springfield yesterday. With yells and cheers the visitors greeted Principal Dwight McCoy, who asked them please "to leave the platters."

Only the trip to the tomb was made in a body. After their lunch and until the exercises at 1:15 p. m. the boys were free, and there were Springfield girls, most of them in gossamer to whom the visitors were of interest.

At Oak Ridge, American flags were carried by the uniformed patrol from the mother chapter at Kansas City, and falling in behind these and the drum and trumpet corps from St. Louis chapter, they marched to the tomb and monument.

"The pilgrimage was an inspiration," said R. Q. Steffel, master counsellor of St. Louis chapter. "It made Lincoln live again for me."

"There was that blood-thirsty bit of the gown where Lincoln's head had rested after he was shot," said Will Wolf of Clayton, "that made it personal to me, and made him real."

To Ray Falcone, 7532 Forsythe avenue, Clayton, the outstanding thing was that negroes shared the same high school as the white children. "And you see white folks and negroes talking together on the streets," he added.

William Hencken, another Clayton lad, suggested then: "But you see, that was where Lincoln lived. He freed the slaves. And Illinois had been a free State, while Missouri had slaves."

First Railroad Trip.
Most surprised of all was Raymond Riedel, who lives on Natural Bridge road near Carsonville, and whose 18 years had never before included the experience of a railroad trip. "It was a real experience," he said, "but did you ever see such country as this? It's so flat."

Back and forth, as they had traveled over the Chicago & Alton through the historic Lincoln land they had rolicked and jollied and laughed. Springfield itself was to see and smile at their youthful pranks, but each for himself and each in his own way, the De Molay brought back a lesson from the tomb of Lincoln.

Movement Now on to Adjourn Geneva Conference Without Dealing With Production.

GENEVA, Feb. 13.—Hopelessly enmeshed in a maze of amendments and counter-amendments, the supercommission of the opium conference is now faced with a determined movement to adjourn without dealing at all with opium smoking or production.

Those who favor this want the Hague convention reaffirmed with a drug treaty added as a protocol. The commission last night threw out the previously adopted American article of the proposed treaty, which had an amendment that tore the bottom out of the Hague convention. Wednesday it had adopted Viscount Cecil's amendment that producing countries might make unlimited reservations.

They all overlooked the fact that this placed the signatories in the position of accepting any reservations the producing countries might choose to make. Thirteen of the 16 delegates on the supercommission were so confused they refused to vote at all. Ireland alone voted against the amendment. The others then demanded reconsideration and the whole article was scrapped.

The general opinion is that the conference has gotten nowhere and is getting into deeper difficulties the longer it goes on.

Leon Bourgeois argued for a free heroin clause in the proposed drug treaty. He said most French patent medicines used an infinitesimal amount of heroin, but that if a single instance of a person becoming an addict through the use of patent medicines were furnished, the French thesis would be withdrawn.

The Belgian delegate immediately cited a personal observation of an addict who contracted the habit from patent medicines and offered to give names and addresses. The conference then passed the proposal whereby heroin is to be distributed only upon medical prescription. The American and British demand for complete suppression of heroin, made before the Americans quit the conference, was sidetracked.

While the conference is dilly-dallying there is evidence that drug concerns in Switzerland and Germany are unloading huge quantities of narcotics. A few days ago a huge quantity of drugs was seized at Hamburg.

Sinus Not a Disease, but an Important Part of the Nose
Needing Care, Says Lecturer

Dr. A. W. Proetz, at Washington University, Tells of Close Relation of Nasal Organ With Brain and Eyes.

Why sinus trouble is a serious matter was explained by Dr. Arthur W. Proetz last night in his lecture, "The Sinus," at the University Medical Auditorium, on "That Nuisance, the Nose." The lecture was one of the university's free public health courses.

"Let me emphasize that a sinus is not a disease," Dr. Proetz said. "A sinus is a normal air cavity in the bones of the skull surrounding the nose. There is a series of these air chambers on each side, varying from the size of a split pea to a walnut."

"These chambers open into the nose through small openings, much as a series of rooms open onto a corridor. They vary in shape and size, but vary considerably in size, not only between various individuals, but also between the two sides of the same individual."

"There are five groups of sinuses. The frontal sinuses, in the forehead and extends for varying distances over the eyes. The anterior ethmoid group lies behind it, extending along the sides of the roof of the nose. Behind this is the posterior ethmoid group, and behind this, in turn, lie the sphenoids. In the regions originally occupied by the primitive teeth, before these have moved to the nasal cavity, are the maxillary sinuses, sometimes called the antrums. These cavities are easily infected from the nose, primarily because they open directly into it, and, secondarily, because their openings are so small that any swelling causes them to swell shut, and to retain the infected secretion. One or more of these cavities is infected practically every time we have a severe cold."

Close to Brain.
"The seriousness of sinus infection lies largely in the circumstance that each of them lies in close contact to some important structure. The uppermost cells of the sinuses groups are separated from the brain cavity by nothing more than a thin sheet of bone, sometimes no thicker than a calling card, and in rare instances absent altogether or in spots. The sinuses are separated from the orbit (which encases the eye) by a sheet of bone so thin that it is known as the lamina papyracea or paper layer. The sphenoids behind the eye, lie in close contact with the optic nerve, the pituitary gland, and the most important of the cranial nerves. The antrum in the cheek is closely related to the roots of certain teeth, beginning with the first molar, and it sometimes occurs that these roots actually extend into the cavity. A root in this position, breaking off in an extraction, sometimes finds its way out through the nose."

"The openings from the sinuses into the nose are located in the spaces between the ridges or tur-binates, and during an acute infection the turbinates swell to such an extent that they block the openings completely. This brings about pressure disturbances in the sinuses resulting in severe headaches, and if the condition is not relieved by re-establishing drainage, the infection may find its way out into the eye or brain cavity or other dangerous situations. This is the type of sinus disease which attaches such ill repute to the very word 'sinus.'"

"A chronically inflamed sinus, opening into the nose, may drip upon and irritate certain important structures which we shall now consider. Probably the most important of these is the opening on the Eustachian tube—a slender tube connecting the back of the nose with the middle ear cavity. If this becomes swollen shut equalization of the air in the middle ear cannot take place, and some degree of deafness results. This happens also when a pad of adenoids compresses the openings."

"A little way above the opening of the tube lies the very important nerve center, known as the nasal ganglion. It is a part of the sympathetic system which controls our involuntary muscular actions, such as heart beats, blood-vessel tone, blushing, and so on. It is the part of this system which lies close to the surface anywhere, and while it is responsible for many pains in the head and neck, it is also accessible for treatment, and its excitation gives relief in many painful conditions."

Why Sense of Smell Is Lost.
The nerve of smell should not be overlooked. Only a small part of the nasal surface is supplied with nerves of smell. This is located high up in the nose, partly on the septum and partly on the side walls, which accounts for the loss of this sense when there is even a slight obstruction in the nose. The organ consists of a network of fine nerve fibers which pass from the brain through a sieve-like bone in the roof of the nose and end on the surface of the membrane. The tear duct, through which tears empty into the nose, lies on the floor of the nose near the front. The tearing which occurs during a cold is partly due to the fact that this tube is swollen shut at such a time."

Having shown what a multiplicity of sensitive structures go to make up the nose, it is easy to see that this organ may readily fall to function properly, especially when subjected to this mixture of gas and smoke which through long association we have come to regard as air. I hope that henceforth you will cease regarding the nose as a merely convenient hump to powder and perch the spectacles on, and give it the respectful consideration it deserves."

SOCIALIST CONGRESS PLEDGES PARTY SUPPORT TO HERIOT

Resolution Is Compromise by Three Factions Represented in Group.

By the Associated Press.
GRENOBLE, France, Feb. 13.—The Heriot ministry is assured of the support in the Chamber of Deputies of the Socialist group of 105 members under the same conditions as it has heretofore received it.

This was the outcome of the Socialist congress, which did not have to make up the nose, it is easy to see that this organ may readily fall to function properly, especially when subjected to this mixture of gas and smoke which through long association we have come to regard as air. I hope that henceforth you will cease regarding the nose as a merely convenient hump to powder and perch the spectacles on, and give it the respectful consideration it deserves."

ITALY LAUNCHES PROPAGANDA AGAINST PAYING WAR DEBTS

Huge Sacrifices in War and Wealth of U. S. and Britain Are Arguments Advanced.

ROME, Feb. 13.—All parties are uniting in praise of the announcement today of the Fascist committee that it intends to examine the question of war debts.

The reason is that all Italians are one in a determination not to pay their debts to Great Britain and the United States in full, perhaps not to pay them at all.

Even the Liberal Corriere della Sera, which usually tacitly admits the justice of the American and British claims, now says it is no shame for Italy "to confess the economic impossibility of repaying the exorbitant sums demanded."

The usual arguments are that Italy made huge war sacrifices, and, anyway, the United States and Great Britain are fabulously rich and got a lot of it from profiteering. The Corriere della Sera says it would be an honor for the Anglo-Saxons to shoulder the economic burden.

Meanwhile, the Fascist Executive Committee has decided to undertake propaganda both at home and abroad along these lines: Italy's sacrifice of men and money after the voluntarily entered the war, long before America did.

WARREN DENIES FUND STATEMENT.
DETROIT, Mich., Feb. 13.—Charles E. Warren, under appointment by President Coolidge as Attorney-General of the United States, has entered emphatic denial here "of the statement, issued in Washington by someone for the purpose of false propaganda, that he was responsible for collecting the campaign fund for the Republican party in 1924."

Warren stated that he was not a member of the Republican National Committee after June, 1920, and never met with the Republican National Committee or any of its members.

I know that my retirement will make no difference in its cardinal principles, that it will always fight for progress and reform, never tolerate injustice or corruption, always fight demagogues of all parties, never belong to any party, always oppose privileged classes and public plunderers, never lack sympathy with the poor, always remain devoted to the public welfare, never be satisfied with merely printing news, always be drastically independent; never be afraid to attack wrong, whether by predatory plutocracy or predatory poverty.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

The Racing Bill.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

As an admirer of good horses, I hope to see the Harper racing bill, as amended, become law, so that Missouri may reap some of the benefits of the encouragement of the revival of racing will be to horse breeding, with all that it means. Whether or not the horse, as a beast of burden, will ultimately be displaced by the motor vehicle, fine horses will always be worth while, and it would be a calamity to lose them. But there are many uses for horses on farms and elsewhere, and for pleasure purposes and sport, nothing can be substituted for the horse, as he has been developed by racing.

It is true that the revival of horse breeding in Missouri will be an incentive to our young men to stay on the farm. The breeding of thoroughbred horses in the United States represented an investment of over $200,000,000 in 1919, most of the industry being concentrated in Kentucky, Virginia, New York, Maryland, Pennsylvania and New Jersey. Why should not Missouri join this group and reap a part of the profit?

But don't let us be hypocritical or urge horse-breeding and racing merely for the commercial point of view. Every red-blooded man and woman enjoys the sight of a horse race. It is not only "the sport of kings," but of the plain people. We have already been deprived of too many stimulating pleasures, and the deprivation has, in my opinion, been the cause of the chronic dissatisfaction that manifests itself in disrespect for law and "general cussedness." Let us demand our share of the good things of life, including the liberty to attend a horse race, and, with proper restrictions, place a bet. We might debar minors, but grown men should not be treated as children. Prohibition has gone far enough. Reasonable regulation should now take its place.

HORSE LOVER.

Marriage Barred.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

Merits of Junior High.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

My intention was to answer "The Mother of Three" in the Junior High School of St. Louis, who asked for a response from a mother of the Junior High of University City, but at the time was too busy to reply. Tonight I notice a continuation of the discussion, so hope my response may still be accepted.

My attitude to junior high schools is entirely different, and I do hope justifiably so. Our junior high school is not out of the locality of the other schools, as in University City the grade and high schools are alongside the junior high, so we have not that inconvenience and worry to contend with, but I would even endure that difficulty to send my son to our junior high school.

Previous to his entrance in junior high, my son showed no interest in school work. It was a task to get his lessons. School and teachers were things that must be endured; he welcomed any opportunity of remaining at home. Now he thoroughly enjoys school, shows a lively interest in current events, wants to study (especially fond of outside reading), and has even desired a set of reference books in preference to another gift.

Both my husband and I are very delighted in his development and keen interest in his studies, and we are aware of this opportunity to give junior high schools a little praise.

A FORMER TEACHER AND MOTHER OF TWO.

The Doctor's Responsibility.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

PLEASE allow me to ask the Board of Health a few questions. Why is it that in this beautiful State of Missouri there is no law to give the people a chance for redress in case of gross neglect and wrong diagnosis of a disease by a physician? When we place the lives of our loved ones in the care of a physician whom we trust implicitly, and he is so careless that he does not even take the time, or interest, to make an examination, but treats for what he thinks is the trouble, and the treatment is very severe, then when the case is hopeless he says he can do no more. He dismisses the case, and that is the end so far as he is concerned.

Another physician diagnoses the case and finds the first physician was absolutely wrong and his treatment had been injurious to the patient, but the case was hopeless and he cannot do anything. So in a few days our loved one is gone, our hearts are broken and sad and our home is desolate. Now why should that physician "get by" and we have no redress for our loss?

We are told that in the State of Missouri there is no law by which a doctor can be tried for anything he does. And they so perfect and trustworthy that they can do as they please, and then go free, unmolested, to do the same thing over again.

One who has had the experience.
MRS. W. E. H.

A MACHINELESS CANDIDATE.

Mr. George E. Dieckman, announcing his candidacy for Mayor, utters phrases and makes statements that strongly suggest what should be in municipal elections. He calls himself a "machineless candidate." He says that he is entering the race without the support of the Republican machine and without the support of a single politician. He declares himself unattached, unpledged and will appoint the best men to office, regardless of party.

One of his best phrases is that he will use all his power to "wreck the city's unnecessary expense account." He believes it possible for a nonpartisan, machineless Mayor to reduce municipal expenditures to 70 per cent of the present cost of government. He says he will turn back the $12,000 contingent fund now allowed the Mayor, and will substitute his own flivver for the fine, high-powered mayoralty automobile.

All of these things are admirable objectives, and Mr. Dieckman's method of going into the race for the mayoralty is ideal. But will the voters support a machineless candidate, pledged to recognize merit in all parties and to a rigid economy which by comparison makes President Coolidge look something like a piker?

Would Mr. Dieckman, if nominated and elected Mayor, be able to carry out his promises? Would he be able to put through his economy measures and his rigid inspection measures, with a Board of Aldermen consisting wholly of Republicans and presumably in harmony with the purposes of the Republican organization? Would he be able to accomplish any of these, under the present system of party government, without the co-operation of the party organization, in control of everything except the mayoralty?

We do not doubt that his example and counsel would be effective to some extent. They would be potent appeals to public opinion, which is powerful to influence public officials. He would have a veto power, which might be used with some effect. As a rule, however, a strictly nonpartisan official in a party system usually runs into a blockade.

We do not want to discourage Mr. Dieckman. In the Zoological Association and in the Humane Society he has contributed valuable service to the public. He is a pioneer here in the machineless and nonpartisan field and his candidacy and platform represent largely the conditions that ought to exist in municipal politics and government.

We shall watch his experiment with interest. Some day we hope to see capable men of public spirit supported by citizens of public spirit and either forced upon the party organizations or run as independent candidates, against party organizations. Without some sort of organization with means to reach the people, great difficulties lie in the way of the independent candidate.

Mr. Dieckman appeals to the people. What will be the response to his appeal?

THE THREAT OF NEPOTISM.

Gov. Baker has at last cleared the way for the appointment of his brother-in-law as steward of the State Hospital at St. Joseph. A few weeks ago, at Baker's request, a meeting of the eleemosynary board, at which four members were present, split even on the proposition of displacing C. C. Graves, the incumbent, with George Gilpin, the Governor's relative. Wednesday the board, with full attendance, took another vote resulting in a deadlock. On the morning of the following day W. C. Pierce, a Republican member who opposed the removal of Graves, was removed from the board, to be supplanted by C. F. Bliker, one of the original Baker-for-Governor Republicans.

Pierce opposed the Graves removal and another similar displacement to create a job for one of Baker's workers, on the ground that the positions are now filled with competent men. The State Institutions, said Pierce, had been kept out of politics in recent years, and he did not think they should be returned to politics.

Although there appears to be no secret of the Governor's intention to commit a bald act of nepotism, it is not too late to refrain from doing it. To return the State eleemosynary institutions, with their 7000 inmates, to the administration of spoils politics would be one of the most depressing backward steps that could be taken. Is the Eleemosynary Board, which is constituted bipartisan to shield the institutions from political jobbery, to become the rubber stamp of the Governor? Are we to have four years of that kind of administration?

The partisan foes of the Governor will rejoice at the completion of his threatened program of nepotism. For the sake of the efficient, nonpartisan administration of institutions for the unfortunate the Post-Dispatch hopes the Governor will reconsider his course before taking the final step.

COURT PROCEDURE IN CANADA.

A defaulting, embezzling or otherwise dishonest bank official whose misconduct brings ruin to depositors in Canada stands little chance of escaping prompt and just punishment, as the following, clipped from the Montreal Star of Feb. 4 shows:

At 4:05 o'clock the last word of argument was spoken by counsel in the case of P. J. B. Russell—and the last of the Home Bank cases before Judge Coatsworth had ended. It was a moment scarcely less memorable than the morning of Sept. 9, 1924, when counsel assembled, and crowds thronged the seats and corridors of the courtroom to hear the opening of these famous trials. For five months the machinery of justice has moved quietly, persistently, relentlessly; six men have been found guilty; three have been sentenced to prison terms and one is on suspended sentence; two others have yet to be sentenced following conviction—they will be sentenced on Feb. 10; and two judgments have yet to be rendered—one tomorrow morning in the case of S. Casey Wood, K. C., and one on Tuesday of next week, in the case just closed.

More than 1200 exhibits have been put in; more than 100 witnesses have been called; and uncounted thousands of pages of evidence have been taken and transcribed.

In five months six directors or officials of this defunct Toronto bank have been found guilty; three sentenced to prison; one is under suspended sentence, and there are two judgments to come.

This Canadian court is a working court. It is improbable that it is haunted by a lot of "fronting" politicians. Its procedure does not permit of unreasonable delay and the denial of justice on account of mere technicalities. It moves in the public interest, regardless of the standing of indicted persons or their backers. Our court procedure reformers should be able to get valuable hints by studying the Canadian methods.

THE SENATE'S OPPOSITION TO WARREN.

The Senate's opposition to Charles B. Warren's nomination for Attorney-General is formidable enough to make his confirmation doubtful in this session. It is so formidable that strategy is now being employed to postpone the vote until the special session of March 4.

The opposition is based on Mr. Warren's relations with the sugar interests. Those relations, to put it mildly, were not ethical. Whatever may be the custom of eminent attorneys when serving rich and powerful clients, the fact remains that Mr. Warren admittedly held stock as a dummy for the Havemeyer interests and in so doing became an accessory to deception. If such service is customary in affairs of magnitude it is a mischievous, indefensible custom. Further, if it is true, as alleged, that the Michigan Sugar Co., while Mr. Warren was its president, violated a court injunction against illegal practices in restraint of trade of which it had been found guilty, the opposition to Mr. Warren's appointment as head of the Department of Justice is justified.

An important question of public policy is involved. Are there to be any real, vital standards for official preferment? Must nominees for high appointments meet any ethical requirements? May a man, in the pursuit of fortune, turn sharp corners and subsequently, with fortune won and ability established, be then eligible for official distinction, without inquiry or examination?

Regardless of practice, such a cynical philosophy is revolting. Along with intellectual capacity, a reasonable degree of moral fitness, exemplified by conduct, should be demanded.

Possibly the Senate is suffering just now from an excess of virtue. Possibly Mr. Warren will be the victim of a senatorial prudish moment. If so, there is prudence in this prudishness. Mr. Warren is an episode. The formal judgment of the Senate that even presidential nominees must qualify morally would be a precedent of lasting worth.

HEALTH CONDITIONS IN ST. LOUIS.

When the City Health Commissioner of Chicago declares, as he did recently, that smoke and other impurities in the city's air are causing a great increase in the number of deaths from respiratory diseases, one wonders what the health situation in St. Louis might be, where the smoke-laden atmosphere is a constant source of irritation and complaint. Dr. Max C. Starkloff, St. Louis Health Commissioner, answered the question in an address Wednesday.

He told of the reduction in the infant mortality rate from 240 per 1000 infants to 58 per 1000, and in the adult rate from 24 per 1000 to 12, since he took the office. He cited figures to illustrate the striking reduction in the number of deaths from various diseases as compared with a few years ago. He quoted facts to show why there is no place in an enlightened community for smallpox, scarlet fever, diphtheria, whooping cough and measles.

Dr. Starkloff says he has been called a Czar. That's just what he wants to be, he declares, a Czar with unlimited power to act to eliminate disease so far as it is possible. Since energetic measures are necessary, there seems to be no reason why Dr. Starkloff and health officers in other cities shouldn't be granted all the power necessary to use them without abusing the rights and vital interests of citizens.

Railroad rates seemingly never will be reduced except over the dead body of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

THE KEY TO A BANKER'S HEART.

It's most perplexing. Beguiling motormen and downy-faced youths walk into banks and issue forth laden with coin of the realm. Their only assets are their liabilities. Their only collateral, apparently, is a smiling promise to pay. We others, fortified with gilt-edged securities and stainless lives, plead tearfully with the banker for a bit of ready cash. We leave empty-handed, apologetically, as the banker fixes us with his cold eye and shakes his head.

Upon what meat doth the Wootans and the Turmans feed that makes the banker take them to his bosom? What secret charm does a motorman possess? Jerome Wootan, a driver on the Hodioman line, began last June a career of high and reckless finance. All he owned was one payment on a new automobile, yet today his borrowings total $14,000, much of which was handed cheerfully through the teller's window. Ten years ago Moe Turman of Brooklyn, a lad of 17, borrowed $100 and, with that liability as a starting point, obtained $2,000,000 more in a decade. A white-headed boy of the counting room was he.

The thing eludes analysis. We are struck with admiration and envy. Why do bankers chill our advances, disregard our unimpeachable reputations, eye suspiciously our collateral, and mutter something about money being tight? Why? Perhaps because we are neither a swashbuckling motorman nor an irresistible youth. Such qualifications seem to be the key to the banker's stony heart.

SORRY TO PRESS YOU, OLD CHAP, BUT I'VE GOT TO PAY THAT BLIGHTER.

A SUGGESTION FOR MARCH 4, 1925.

At home, fellow citizens, you best know whether we have done well or ill. The suppression of unnecessary offices, of useless establishments and expenses, enabled us to discontinue our internal taxes. These, covering our land with officers and opening our doors to their intrusions, had already begun that process of domiciling vexation which once entered is scarcely to be restrained from reaching successively every article of property and produce. If among these taxes some minor ones fell which had not been inconvenient, it was because their amount would not have paid the officers who collected them, and because, if they had any merit, the State authorities might adopt them instead of others less approved.

The remaining revenue on the consumption of foreign articles is paid chiefly by those who can afford to add foreign luxuries to domestic comforts, being collected on our seaboard and frontiers only, and incorporated with the transactions of our mercantile citizens. It may be the pleasure and pride of an American to ask, what farmer, what mechanic, what laborer ever sees a tax-gatherer of the United States?—Jefferson's second inaugural address, March 4, 1805.

In a pronouncement by the Seventh Day Adventists of Whitehall, Ill., we find this: "Now my friends when we see hail, every stone the weight of a talent in (which is 57 pounds) come down out of heaven (Rev. 16:21) then and not until then will we see the coming of Jesus. God says 'It is done.' Rev. 16:17-21. Rev. 21:1-6."

If we ever see hailstones weighing 57 pounds each that will be the last thing we will see, no matter who is coming.

To Mr. Antwine: On reading your theory in Monday's paper, I was reminded of a phrase of R. L. Mencken's, in which he refers to "such mountebanks as Wilson and Davis."

I could not account for his attitude until I read your theory, but I see now that since Mr. Fall was a boob for not getting more, Mr. Wilson, who got nothing, was a joke—in America. CEPHALUS.

The cry of bolshevism is said to be responsible for the reaction that has set in over all of Western and Central Europe. As in our own country, it has served admirably the purposes of the conservatives and Tories. So that bolshevism has not been the slayer of capitalism, but liberalism.

"CHILD LABOR" IN CANADA.

From the Washington Post.

ABOUT 20 years ago the British Government adopted a plan for migration of Canada of English children who had as homes of their own. The selection of the children, however, was left entirely in the hands of Canadian authorities resident in Great Britain. The children have generally been chosen from orphan societies and upon arrival in Canada placed in temporary receiving homes, to be distributed as rapidly as possible. The great majority go to the farming communities, where they are welcome in helping with the light work. The boys over 14 do real farming, for which they receive fully specified wages. The money, however, is paid over to the orphan society from which they came, to be held in trust until the youths reach the age of 18, when they become independent. A committee appointed by Parliament to inquire into the success of the plan recently made its report. It finds that under this system a total number of 78,000 children have gone to Canada, been placed in the farmhands throughout that vast country and reared up to healthy, outdoor lives. Their tender years have not been abused; on the contrary, they have been generously shielded. Many of these former wards are now farmers, business men and professionals and, almost without exception, owe their success to the wholesome environment of their youth. This is indeed a work upon which even the greatest empire on earth can wish the sun never set. If Canada—let it be noted—had had a "child labor" law prohibiting minors from doing vast country and reared up to healthy, outdoor lives, their tender years have not been abused; on the contrary, they have been generously shielded. FAMOUS TOWER CLOCK OFFERED TO ST. LOUIS Timepiece Won First Prize at Philadelphia Centennial in 1876.

St. Louis has a chance to get a good clock for nothing. It is a tower clock and doesn't lose more than 10 seconds in a year. This is a much better record than possessed by the town clock now on the City Hall, as that chronometer usually loses about two months' time annually.

The clock which the city now has an opportunity to obtain is a famous timepiece. At the Centennial Exposition at Philadelphia in 1876 it won first prize in tower clock competition. Since then it has had a long sleep, perhaps due to the influence of the city in which it was exhibited.

Operates Four Dials.
But the other day, the owner of the clock, Dudley P. Pasoldt, of Albany, N. Y., nephew of Charles Pasoldt, who constructed it, looked at the prize mechanism morosely marking time in a solid mahogany and glass case in a back room, and decided to give it a chance to show its face to the world, an opportunity which it has never had. So he has offered it to the municipality or building that will give it a good and important home. It will operate four dials, and the dials may be anywhere up to 100 feet in diameter.

The hydraulic clock now on the City Hall hasn't much of a reputation. It first began to get dependent during the war, lost time and finally stopped. For a while it was charged with being a conscientious objector, but stirred up criticism it suddenly started up again one day.

But it never was the same. Since the autumn of 1921 it has stopped a number of times. Many a person chancing to pass the City Hall, and having an appointment at noon, would meet a friend and stop for a chat. He would look up at the clock and find he had a half hour to talk, as it was only 11:30. He would talk for a half hour and again look up at the clock. It would still be 11:30.

Hard on Visitors.
St. Louisans no longer loiter much about their clock, but it has been hard on visitors. Some of them have taken it for granted and gained the impression that St. Louis was continually lying by daylight saving time, while others believed the city was operating by Pacific Coast time.

President Kinsey of the Board of Public Service, after being informed of the offer made by the prize winning clock's owner, said he would investigate and see if the clock now in Albany would be adaptable to the City Hall or any place on a city building.

As for our town clock, it says: "I really don't care what becomes of me. I have had my time."

SPENCER'S LINCOLN DAY TALK

Tells Union League Civil War Problems Exist Today.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 12.—Senator Spencer of Missouri, in an address at the Lincoln Day celebration at the Union League last night, declared that national problems were the same during the Civil War and that the greatest danger was caused by the maladministration of the immigration population that does not understand American institutions.

He said there was abundance of room in the United States, but that he was opposed to an influx of immigrants who neither had the ability nor desire to become citizens. Declaring that he was opposed to tampering with the principles of the Constitution, he said: "When we look with indulgence upon the violation of its provisions, when we even consider any change that would open the doors to the minority as established by the Constitution and as preserved under its terms by the Supreme Court, we have begun a process of disintegration that, if continued, leads to destruction."

OLUTION OF DANCING.

O'London's Weekly.
It was only yesterday that the quakers, the lancets, the polkas and the waltzes were simple souls, and it is these dances, now superseded, only with the nineteenth century. In 1812 that our great-grandmothers danced to the tune of the waltz, and from the land of the South. The position in which partners were to engage in the new dance was the national sense of propriety and modesty grossly indecorous.

It was said, "never produced so great a revolution in English society. Mothers and every ballroom became a scene of confusion." Byron—"as no prude—satirized it in scathing lines, under the pseudonym of John. Esq. We who live in a glorious age can afford to smile at the indignation which the waltz more especially when we recall the waltz which this outbreak was dismembering, however, that the dancers at that time indulged in more daringly intimate than the hands, we need not be surprised more familiar embrace. It had seemed a little improper, but to the dance was very gentle and quite sincere and it was many years before the waltz gained a sure footing on the ball-rooms of the metropolis.

SENATE INQUIRY INTO RAIL MERGERS SOUGHT

Howell of Nebraska Proposes Investigation of Missouri Pacific and Nickel Plate.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—Charging that railroad consolidations approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission show it is "unwilling or unable" to protect the public interest, Senator Howell (Rep.) of Nebraska has proposed in a resolution that the Senate authorize a thorough investigation of the question.

In offering his resolution yesterday the Senator proposed that the Senate Interstate Commerce Committee be directed to investigate the Nickel Plate Railroad, merged and the "consolidations now being consummated by the Missouri Pacific Railroad Co." The latter have been approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission, but the Van Swearingen interests have not yet directly sought the commission's approval of the Nickel Plate merger.

Declaring he wanted the "facts before it is too late to act," Howell said the railroad, "strongly" supported by President Coolidge, were embarking upon a series of "huge mergers without precedent in the nation's history, and without any knowledge" on the part of Congress of what is involved. It was the intent of Congress in the transportation act, he said, that the rail mergers should be permitted only under the "strict control and supervision" of the commission.

Howell continued: "We are not only establishing a new policy, in direct opposition to the traditional policy proclaimed in the Sherman antitrust law of permitting consolidation of competing lines, but we are authorizing this policy of Government-sanctioned consolidations to be applied to all the railroad mileage of the country without any knowledge of what is involved."

The resolution stated that "there is now in process of formation a consolidation of the New York, Chicago & St. Louis (Nickel Plate) the Chesapeake & Ohio; the Hocking Valley, the Erie & Pere Marquette" with a total mileage of 14,357 miles, and assets "valued by the promoters to amount to $1,406,762,792."

The "new Nickel Plate" merger, it declared, would embrace the merger of the Chicago & State Line, the Lake Erie & Western, the Fort Wayne, Cincinnati & Louisville and the Toledo, St. Louis & Western ("Clover" Leaf) and would give the Morgan-Pier National financial group a substantial control of transportation in the east "with accompanying control of coal properties in contravention to decisions of the Supreme Court."

Reference was also made in the resolution to the large profits alleged to have accrued to promoting interests.

SENATE BODY FAVORS COUNTY POLICE BILL

Measure to Create Department in St. Louis County Has Chance to Pass.

By CURTIS A. BETTS, Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Feb. 12.—Favorable action yesterday afternoon by the Senate Judiciary Committee on the Ralph bill to create a St. Louis County Police Department has placed the bill well on its way to engrossment and passage in the Senate. The measure is believed to have an excellent chance of passage.

Through the co-operation of Presiding Judge Smiley of the St. Louis County Court and Arthur W. Lashby, Democrat, and George W. Baumhoff, Senator Ralph convinced the committee, a majority of which are Democrats, that his bill is a nonpartisan measure, and that as nearly as is possible the police department created by the bill would be nonpolitical.

Protection Inadequate Now. Lashby read a letter from Chairman Hereford of the Democratic Committee of the county, approving the measure, and he and Ralph told the committee they knew of no opponent of the measure, other than former Senator A. E. L. Gardner.

At the committee hearing yesterday explanations were made that because of the rapid growth of the population of the county, its proximity to St. Louis and the large number of unincorporated communities of several thousand population each, it was impossible for the Sheriff to establish adequate patrols or to give adequate protection from criminals. Senator Ralph said the measure was not aimed at the Sheriff's office, and that none of the Sheriff's power was taken from him by the bill.

Up for Passage Next Week. Judge Smiley said that he and Judge Bohring of the county court favored the measure and that they would find the funds to support the department. Ralph had explained that $16,000 annually would be available if another bill introduced by him was passed. This measure repeals a statute authorizing the Sheriff to appoint 28 special deputies at $5 a day each. With a police department functioning, he said, these deputies would not be needed. The bill will be on the Senate calendar for engrossment Monday and can be taken up before the middle of the week. If engrossed, as there is little doubt it will be, the bill can come up for final passage in the Senate by the end of the week.

DEATHBED A POOR PLACE TO REPENT, DR. TORREY SAYS

Asserts Most People Think They Will Have Long Illness and Time to Prepare for Eternity.

"The deathbed is a poor place to repent and accept Christianity after spending a life in doing things that Christianity does not permit," the Rev. Dr. R. A. Torrey, evangelist, declared in his sermon on "What Are You Waiting For?" delivered at the Washington and Compton Presbyterian Church last night.

"Have you any guarantee," he asked his audience, "that you will not die tonight? I think not. Not one of us can tell how soon the summons may come. Have you any guarantee that when you die you will not die suddenly? People seem to take it for granted that they are going to have a long lingering illness and plenty of time to repent and attend to the affairs of eternity. But in that way most people die in these days? Most people that I know, who have died, died suddenly, and it is largely so everywhere. Many people take it for granted that the best place in the world to repent is on the death bed. My observation has been that it is the poorest place. I have been at many

SENATE BODY FAVORS
COUNTY POLICE BILL

Measure to Create Department in St. Louis County Has Chance to Pass.

By CURTIS A. BETTS,
Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.
JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Feb.
13.—Favorable action yesterday afternoon by the Senate Judiciary Committee on the Ralph bill to create a St. Louis County Police Department has placed the bill well on its way to engrossment and passage in the Senate. The measure is believed to have an excellent chance of passage.

Through the co-operation of Presiding Judge Smiley of the St.
Louis County Court and Arthur V.
Lashly, Democrat, and George W.
Baumhoff, Senator Ralph convinced the committee, a majority of which are Democrats, that his bill is a nonpartisan measure, and that as nearly as is possible the police department created by the bill would be nonpolitical.

Protection Inadequate Now.
Lashly read a letter from Chairman Herford of the Democratic Committee of the county, approving the measure, and he and Ralph told the committee they knew of no opponent of the measure, other than former Senator A. E. L. Gardner.

At the committee hearing yesterday explanations were made that because of the rapid growth of the population of the county, its proximity to St. Louis and the large number of unincorporated communities of several thousand population each, it was impossible for the Sheriff to establish adequate patrols or to give adequate protection from criminals. Senator Ralph said the measure was not aimed at the Sheriff's office, and that none of the Sheriff's power was taken from him by the bill.

Up for Passage Next Week.
Judge Smiley said that he and Judge Bohring of the county court favored the measure and that they would find the funds to support the department. Ralph had explained that $25,000 annually would be available if another bill introduced by him was passed.
This measure repeals a statute authorizing the Sheriff to appoint

DEATHBED A POOR PLACE

TO REPENT, DR. TORREY SAYS
Most People Think They Will Have Long Illness and Time to Prepare for Eternity.

"The deathbed is a poor place to repent and accept Christianity after spending a life in doing things that Christianity does not permit," the Rev. Dr. E. A. Torrey, evangelist, declared in his sermon on "What Are You Waiting For?" delivered at the Washington and Compton Presbyterian Church last night.

"Have you any guarantee," he asked his audience, "that you will not die tonight? I think not. Not one of us can tell how soon the angel of death will come. Have you any guarantee that when you die you will not die suddenly? People seem to take it for granted that they are going to have a long illness and plenty of time to repent and attend to the affairs of eternity. But is that the way most people die in these days?
Most people that I know, who have died suddenly, and it is terribly so everywhere."
"Many people take it for granted that the best place in the world to repent is on the death bed. My observation has been that it is the worst place. I have been at many deathbeds but of all the confessions

I have heard under such circumstances there was only one of which I was confident."

GRAND JURY FREES THEATER MANAGER WHO KILLED YOUTH
 Testimony at Inquest Into Death of Elroy Pinke Found Not to Be Basis for Criminal Action.
 The grand jury yesterday exonerated Steve Chulick, owner and manager of the Lowell Theater.

Broadway and DeSoto street, who shot and killed Elroy Pinke, 21, during a movie show there Tuesday night.
 The grand jury investigation was held a few hours after a Coroner's jury had ordered Chulick held under $10,000 bond on a homicide bond. A no true bill, freeing Chulick, was returned after the grand jury considered the inquest testimony and could see no basis for further criminal action. Chulick had testified at the inquest that he fired in self-defense after Pinke and associates, who had created a disturbance, began to beat Chulick and an usher.

BILL TO TAX CATS OPPOSED
 Hearing Conducted on Connecticut Measure.
 By the Associated Press.
 HARTFORD, Conn., Feb. 13.—A bill for taxation of cats was vigorously opposed at a hearing before a Connecticut legislative committee.

William H. Fairchild, a Justice of New Fairfield, declared that every pair of rats permitted to live produced descendants to the number of 259,709,842 in three years and that the surest way to limit the rat population was to encourage cats.
 He said that if cats were taxed "you'd have to put collars on all the cats, and it would be some job for the cat wardens." Mrs. Ellen T. Lewis, representing a humane society, deplored the necessity of collars for cats, because they would be in danger of hanging every time they climbed a tree. No one favored the bill.

BOOST ARKANSAS CITY HERE
 34 Citizens of Kansas Town Guests at Luncheon and Dinner.
 Thirty-four members of the Arkansas City, Kan. Chamber of Commerce were dinner guests last night of Missouri Pacific Railroad officials at the Hotel Statler. They were luncheon guests of St. Louis-San Francisco officials, also at the Statler.

The purpose of the trip is to boost Arkansas City as an industrial center. The delegation arrived on a special car yesterday and will return tonight.

Proposes Auto Horns for Socialists.
 VIENNA, Feb. 13.—The Socialist members of the Austrian Parliament, who depend upon noise for obstruction of parliamentary debate, have found an ally in a dealer in automobile supplies. This enterprising business man recently addressed a letter to the Socialist members offering them "second-hand automobile sirens and horns cheap, for obstruction purposes."

MOTORIST HESITATES OVER FINE AND GETS 30 DAYS

Although Fred Athens, 29, of 6419 Barmier avenue speeded at 45 miles an hour along Natural Bridge road on Feb. 10, it was his hesitation this morning that cost him 30 days in jail.

Athens was before Justice of the Peace Werremeyer at Clayton, Dep. uty Constable Dobyns described the man's offense. The Court found him guilty.

"You have your choice," said the Judge, "between a $20 fine and 30 days in jail."

Then the fatal hesitation.

Athens paused and thought.

"A man as stinky as you should be in jail," the Justice said. "Take 30 days. Call the next case."

PESSIMISM IN LEAGUE CIRCLES OVER PROTOCOL

Impression Growing That Peace Document Must Be Remodeled

By the Associated Press.

GENEVA, Feb. 13.—A somewhat pessimistic atmosphere seems to be prevailing here concerning the prospects of the Geneva peace protocol, framed at the meeting of the last assembly of the League of Nations.

The apparent disinclination of the British Government to accept the impression here that the protocol must be remodeled.

Among the representatives of the smaller states the idea advanced of setting up a three-cornered or even a quadruple alliance with Great Britain, France, Belgium and Germany as the parties, by way of supplying security, is not without considerable land in the White River country. Coroner Thornhill discovered that one of the horses had rubbed off its bridle. This is believed to have frightened the team.

Yeggs Got $5700 in Postoffice.

By the Associated Press.

PARAGOULD, Ark., Feb. 13.—Burglars gained entrance to the postoffice here last night, forced open two safes with the aid of an acetylene torch and escaped with money, stamps, notes and bonds valued at approximately $5700. Postal funds and stamps stolen amounted to about $500. The remainder of the loot was the private property of C. J. Crawford, a post-office employee. The robbery was discovered this morning.

ENVOY SAYS DRY LAW WOULD NOT WORK IN MEXICO

Declares Ease With Which Pulque Can Be Obtained Would Nullify Prohibition.

SAN ANTONIO, Feb. 13.—Manuel C. Tellez, new Mexican Ambassador to the United States, left here last night for Washington.

Prohibition would not work in Mexico, according to Tellez, who declared that he would be like putting the brakes on a speeding car, and is full of danger.

There is one stumbling block for prohibition in Mexico, according to Tellez. That is pulque, the national drink of the poor. Pulque is a heritage from the Aztec. It was pointed out. It was the national drink of Mexico long before Cortez landed at Vera Cruz. Every Mexican can grow the maguay plant and all that is necessary is to cut the end of the leaf of the maguay and let the sap drip into a vessel. There is his pulque. The drink is mild but ferments quickly and generates a small percentage of alcohol.

The new Ambassador criticized some of the American motion picture companies for what he termed false interpretation of the Mexican characteristics in many of their films.

MAN AND WIFE KILLED IN RUNAWAY NEAR BRANSON, MO.

Daughter Sustains Broken Arm and Injuries to Head After Team Becomes Frightened.

By the Associated Press.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Feb. 13.—Mark F. Bennett and his wife were killed and their 7-year-old daughter was seriously injured in a runaway at 4:30 yesterday afternoon at Moore's Ferry, eight miles east of Branson, Taney County. Bennett was thrown under a rear wheel and suffered injuries which caused his death 15 minutes later. Mrs. Bennett was hurled from the wagon and killed instantly. Bennett's daughter suffered a broken arm and serious injuries to her head.

Bennett was one of the richest men in Taney County; he owned considerable land in the White River country. Coroner Thornhill discovered that one of the horses had rubbed off its bridle. This is believed to have frightened the team.

Poland to Appeal "Mail Box" Case.

Special Cable to the Post-Dispatch from the Vienna Daily News. Copyright 1931.

VIENNA, Feb. 13.—Their better judgment is holding back the Polish nationalists who would like to enter Danzig to settle "the little monster who is blocking Poland's way to the sea." The League of Nations' commissioner at Danzig, McDowell, has decided that the treaties do not give Poland the right to maintain the mail boxes which were installed in the night more than a month ago when the Danzigers desecrated the Polish Eagle on the mail boxes. The Nationalist councils are waiting until Commissioner McDowell's decision can be appealed to the League.

COAT HELPS CLEAR

UP STORE ROBBERIES

Sheepskin-Lined Garment Led to Admissions by Prisoner,
Police Say.

24-26

Benjamin Anderson, 23 years old, who declared when arrested
Wednesday morning in a Kroger grocery holdup that it was his first crime, was confounded yesterday by the memory of detectives and the police announced, confessed three other Kroger hold-ups last month, following identification by the store manager in each case.

24-26

The trouble was that Anderson wore a sheepskin-lined coat and a gray cap each time he went on a robbing expedition. His victims reported his attire, and Detectives Taylor and Spies remembered this after seeing the coat and cap at Mounted District Station, where Anderson was held.

24-26

Previous Kroger robberies to which Anderson is said to have confessed were: Jan. 4, Twentieth and Deschamps streets, $16; Jan. 6, 1225 Wright street, $107, and Jan.
14, 3441 North Fourteenth street,
$85.

Would Be the Mayor Again.
Former Mayor Marshall B. Peterson of Webster Groves will be a candidate for another term at the spring election, he announced last night. In addition to serving as Mayor for one term Peterson has also served as a Councilman. Willard H. Guest, former City Attorney of Webster Groves, will be a candidate for election to the City Council.

MARK TWAIN PARK

TRANSFERRED TO STATE
Tract on Salt River Has 100 Acres, and $5000 Is to Be Spent on Improvements.

MOBERLY, Mo., Feb. 13.—Formal transfer of the Mark Twain Park at Florida to the State of Missouri was announced today by H. J. Blanton of Paris, president of the Mark Twain Memorial Park Association.

The transfer was made early this week at Jefferson City, with Blanton and W. C. Van Cleave of Moberly, vice president, representing the association. Gov. Baker, Attorney-General Otto and State Fish and Game Commissioner Wieland affixed their signatures to the document on behalf of the State.

The sum of $5000 was set aside in the transaction for a suitable water supply and such other improvements as can be made, including the purchase of a four-acre tract on the north end of the park. A 10,000-gallon reservoir at one of the springs is planned.

Use of a portion of the grounds for the propagation of Chinese pheasants is under consideration. Ultimate conversion of the lands into a great outdoor memorial to Samuel Clemens, who used to roam over the territory covered by the park, is expected by those who have been identified with the enterprise.

The tract consists of 100 acres of wooded hills and grassy valley, with a frontage on Salt River. It was purchased with funds raised by public subscription.

URGES STRINGENT ACTION TO STOP COMMERCIALIZED EVIL

Social Hygiene Secretary Says Public Opinion Does Not Support Abatement Law.

Charles E. Miner, executive secretary of the Missouri Social Hygiene Committee, was a speaker at a meeting of the political information bureau of the League of Women Voters at the league's headquarters this morning. Miner, who served during the war on the staff of the Surgeon-General of the army in law enforcement work, and later in connection with the same program under the Interdepartmental Social Hygiene Board, stressed the need for more effective laws against commercialized prostitution in Missouri.

He said that while the drastic injunction and abatement law has been in effect in Missouri for more than three years, no cases have been brought under it in St. Louis. This, according to the speaker, is largely attributable to the fact that public opinion is not yet ready to support prosecutions against property owners in this type of offense. "There is every disposition on the part of law enforcing officials to respond to this inadequacy in public support by giving the defendant even more than the benefit of the doubt, and the possibility that the owner of premises used for immoral purposes may be ignorant of their use is an ever-present question in the minds of law enforcing officials," he said.

12 MORE DOCTORS TO BE CITED BY HEALTH BOARD

JEFFERSON CITY, Feb. 13.—Pursuing its campaign to rid the medical profession of Missouri of unqualified doctors, the Missouri State Board of Health has found among its records about 12 more practicing physicians who will be cited, with the 50 already named, to appear before the board in St. Louis March 9, to show cause why their licenses should not be revoked.

These citations will make a total of about 72 physicians who have come under suspicion of the board as having either fraudulently purchased diplomas or educational credits or to have obtained their licenses to practice medicine through fraud or political influence.

As has been told, Dr. Waldo Briggs, dean of the St. Louis College of Physicians and Surgeons and member of the St. Louis Medical Society, heads the list of doctors who are to be cited for unprofessional conduct through activities in the so-called "diploma mill," by which scores of doctors are said to have been graduated or licensed through fraud.

Dr. James Stewart, director of Public Health of Missouri and secretary of the State Board of Health, announced today that he had discovered the additional names and that he would announce them for publication after he had prepared the citations.

Youth Shot by Taxicab Driver Dies

NEW YORK, Feb. 13.—Dennis J. Kenny, 20-year-old preparatory school youth who was shot in front of the home of Miss Annabelle Flower at No. 337 McDonough street, Brooklyn, the morning of Jan. 29 by a pistol-toting, unemployed taxicab driver, who ended a fare dispute with a fusillade, died yesterday afternoon in St. Mark's hospital, Brooklyn. John Leventine, an ex-copilot-chauffeur has confessed the shooting.

KING'S BARS FORTUNE TELLING
 King Leader Urges His People to Vote and Educate Children.
 NEW YORK, Feb. 13.—King, newly crowned monarch of the Gypsies in America, who lives in the Harlem section of New York, announced as the keynote of his policy that his subjects must stop fortune telling. He also advocates that his people settle, vote and send their children to school. It is all right for them to practice fortune telling, however. The King is quite a modern person who is known in private life as Frank Mitchell.

"Fortune telling for fees must stop," says the King, his eyes flashing. "It must stop entirely. It has practically stopped already. Another thing I want to do is to Americanize my people. They wander too much. They should settle, vote and send their children to school. They are fine mechanics. When they wander they are accused of everything. It is all false. But they will have a bad name as long as they wander."

DOVE OF PEACE ALIGHTS ON SAC AND FOX RESERVATION
 Morgan and Moore Sign Agreement and Charges Against Them Are Dismissed.
 CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia., Feb. 12.—The dove of peace has settled down on the Sac and Fox Indian Reservation after leaders of both factions, before United States Commissioner Stoddard here, agreed to be. have themselves if the charges against Ames Morgan and Albert Moore, causes of the recent unpleasantness, were dismissed.

Morgan signed an agreement that he would not again attack Moore, provided Moore would agree not to force his attentions on Mrs. Morgan.

Moore signed an agreement to leave the reservation Saturday and never again to set foot on it. The charge against Morgan was assault with intent to inflict great bodily harm. Moore was charged with taking liquor on the reservation and also contributing to the delinquency of Mrs. Morgan.

There was a dramatic scene in court when the belligerents faced each other. Moore, who is blind in one eye and almost sightless in the other as the result of a blow thrown in his face by Morgan, gripped his way to the Commissioner's desk while Morgan and his wife stood in a defiant attitude on the other side.

Mrs. Morgan told her troubles with her husband, asserting that this week, while in a jealous rage, he grabbed their 4-year-old child, took it into the yard, picked up an ax and threatened to cut its head off, but that her pleading saved it. She admitted indiscretions with Moore, but promised to be a dutiful wife if forgiven. Morgan made that promise and also promised he would treat her better.

Moore admitted the charges against him and was warned by the Commissioner if they were repeated it would mean a prison term.

SEEK TO ADOPT BOY WHOSE MOTHER DISAPPEARED IN 1921
 Louis Kehrer and Wife of Mascoutah Would Take Custody of Their Nephew.

Louis and Stella Kehrer of Mascoutah filed a petition in County Court at Belleville yesterday for the adoption of their nephew, Herman Kehrer, 13 years old. The boy is now in the custody of his grandmother, Mrs. Marie Wegner, of 1921 North Charles street.

Mr. and Mrs. Kehrer in their petition declare that the grandmother is old and feeble and incapable of giving the boy the proper care and attention he should receive. The petition states that the lad is a son of Mrs. Antonette Kehrer, Coffel by a former marriage. After the death of the boy's father, the mother married Eugene Coffel of St. Louis. Coffel died some time ago.

Mrs. Coffel, the mother of the boy, according to the petition, disappeared in June, 1921, and nothing has been heard from her since. While Mrs. Wegner, the grandmother, will not oppose the adoption of the boy by his uncle and aunt, Belleville authorities are trying to locate his mother if possible for the hearing, which will be held March 17.

ILLINOIS SHERIFF RECOVERS $2500 WORTH OF FALSE TEETH
 Thirteen Members of Colorado Gang, Including Three Business Men Under Arrest.

JACKSONVILLE, Ill., Feb. 13.—Sheriff T. O. Wright of Morgan County has recovered a small closed automobile and $2500 worth of gold-plated false teeth, said to have been stolen in Colorado. The automobile, according to the Sheriff, was stolen from a man in Colorado Springs and was brought to this county by Clifford Obermeyer and sold. The Sheriff stated that the teeth had been shipped here in a trunk, which had not been opened at the Dannerberger farm. The Sheriff said that he had connected Clifford Obermeyer and his brother Maurice, both former residents of Jacksonville, and now under arrest in Chicago, with a gang of 16 men who had been operating in Colorado. He said that three of the men were present at business men of Colorado Springs. According to the Sheriff all but three of the gang are now in custody.

'GARAGE' NOW IS GOOD FRENCH
 "Flap" Slung for "Seedy." However, Is Barred From Dictionary.

PARIS, Feb. 13.—The French Academy has admitted several new words to the revised dictionary. The committee now is engaged on that section beginning with the letter H, having finished the G section. The word "grouse" has been admitted after long discussion, but is Frenchified by spelling with a double s—grouse. The word "garage" was also accepted. Jean Richelin proposed "flap" in common use for "seedy" or "down in the mouth," but it was ruled out by the majority.

TENANT THROWS LANDLORD'S CHILD IN RIVER AFTER DISPUTE
 Vienna Police Records Show Man Served Prison Sentences for Murder and Manslaughter.

VIENNA, Feb. 13.—After an argument over a sum equivalent to $7, Karl Zeidler, a pensioner, 73, yesterday took his landlord's 18-month-old daughter to a bridge over the Danube, flung the baby to her death in the river and then gave himself up to police.

Investigation of Zeidler's record showed he had once been condemned to death, the sentence being commuted to 25 years' imprisonment, which he served. On another occasion he was given a short sentence for manslaughter.

Beauty Expert Says Hands Tell Story
 Your hands are an open book, telling a story that all may read. The innate refinement, the good breeding expressed in well kept hands, is unmistakable and costs little in effort or money. Authorities say the best means to such a wholly desirable end is the frequent application of a famous fragrant lotion known as Bonney Beauty Balm, sponsored by Esther Bonney of Chicago, whose life work has been in the interest of women and their beauty problems. Just that extra half minute necessary to rub Beauty Balm well into your hands several times a day, means the firm smooth texture and white loveliness of youth. It is a habit that gives results, and the pleasant use of this lotion each time you wash your hands is the sure way to make them irresistible. It rubs in quickly without leaving a trace except its fragrance. At all toilet goods counters.

During 1924 the Post-Dispatch printed 164,844 Real Estate Ads—23,281 more than the THREE other St. Louis newspapers combined.

G. O. P. STATE COMMITTEE TO INITIATE REDISTRICTING LAW
Chairman Phares Criticized Judge Graves for Defeat of Measure Passed by Legislature.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
KANSAS CITY, Mo., Feb. 12.—The Republican State Committee, in session yesterday, adopted a resolution to prepare and submit petitions to initiate a law for redistricting the congressional and senatorial districts of Missouri. S. W. James of Sedalia and Robert Grover of Warrensburg were appointed as a committee to prepare the petitions.

Then W. S. Phares, State chairman, addressed the assembly as follows:

"Our previous efforts to redistrict Missouri in the Fifty-first General Assembly were defeated by Judge W. W. Graves, a partisan Democrat, by reversing one of his previous decisions.

"This same Judge Graves has just been recognized by Gov. Baker in the appointment of the Judge's son, W. W. Graves Jr., as a member of the Kansas City Board of Election Commissioners."

Then Phares turned to newspaper men, seated to one side of the room. "I realize I must go to jail for such a statement, but it is all true, and I stand behind it," he said.

DAWES SAYS 'PUSSYFOOTING' POLITICIANS CAUSE UNREST
Vice President-Elect Declares Trouble Is Not With American People, but With Leaders.

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Feb. 12.—In his first public address since election as vice president, Charles G. Dawes, paying tribute to the memory of Abraham Lincoln last night, declared the trouble with the country today is not with the American people, but with "pussyfooting, straddling, cowardly politicians." He spoke at the Lincoln dinner of the Illinois Lions Club.

Gesturing with his well-known pipe, the vice president-elect said: "Would you ever imagine Lincoln pussyfooting or shoddyding as some political leaders do today? Straddling the fence, preaching one thing in one section of the country and something else in another, to gain a few votes? That's what's the matter with this country today. The people of the country are all right, but there is something wrong some times with their leaders. I don't respect any man, whatever his party, who won't stand up and fight for the Constitution and law enforcement in the United States."

"ZARK GRAPE QUEEN ARRESTED"
Mrs. Ella Davis Taken on Concealed Weapon Charge, but Later Released.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Feb. 12.—Mrs. Ella Davis, living near Hollister, known as the "grape queen of the Ozarks," was arrested yesterday on a charge of carrying concealed weapons. She later was released when citizens interceded in her behalf.

The arrest was made as the woman entered the office of Frank B. Williams, for several years her attorney, who recently has been involved in litigation against her. Williams, who recently foreclosed a mortgage he held on one of the ranches owned by Mrs. Davis, called police, and a detective took the woman in custody when she arrived. Sale of one of the ranches was made two weeks ago, at Forsyth and Williams holder of the mortgage, bought in this property. He gave Mrs. Davis two weeks in which to redeem the land if she desired. The time expired yesterday. Williams yesterday levied on other property held by Mrs. Davis. She is the widow of Dr. A. Davis, former Chicago surgeon, who bought the 1100 acres in Taney County which were made into the Ridgedale and Valley fruit farms and ranches. More than 500 acres of the land are in fruit, principally grapes.

Trophy to Be Named for Dog.
NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—A trophy, named for Balto, famous husky which led Gunnar Kasson's dog team through a raging blizzard to Nome, Alaska, with serum to combat an epidemic of diphtheria, will be presented each year to the winner of one of the great dog races in the Canadian Northwest, according to plans announced today by Mrs. Frank T. Clarke of Sheephead Bay. Mrs. Clarke, who owns kennels here, is offering for the first year prize an antique Sheffield silver plate.

Five Damages Fiat Factory.
By the Associated Press.
TURIN, Italy, Feb. 12.—Fire of undetermined origin yesterday did damage estimated at 2,000,000 lire to the Fiat automobile factory here. The fire started in the varnishing department. Twenty-seven newly finished automobiles and 130 canvas tops were destroyed.

Who Reaps the Riches From $2.00 Wheat?

AFTER a steady rise for months in wheat prices, on one day in January the Chicago Wheat Pit burst into a wild frenzy as May wheat skyrocketed to the peace-time record price of $2.05 7/8 a bushel.

As wheat prices soar the newspapers tell of the great operators making their millions in the wheat market, and of Chicago bootblacks, elevator-boys and stenographers drawing down their hundreds or thousands in profits on shoe-string margin speculation.

In the Emporia (Kansas) Gazette we read that wheat, "is liable to be one of the precious jewels of the earth if the shortage of this year holds over until next. In the meantime out in Western Kansas the snow is peeling off the wheat, and showing it looking like a million dollars. Another big wheat crop in Kansas with prices ranging over a dollar will put diamond pants-buttocks on the Kansas farmers."

But there is another aspect to this strange eventful drama—flour selling in San Francisco at $11.40 a barrel, the highest price since 1868; another sou added to the price of the Frenchman's bread; another penny added to the cost of the quarter loaf in London; predictions of price advances of one or two cents a loaf for bread in our cities, and calculations by experts that the high price of wheat will mean an increase of $13 a year in the average family's food expenditure.

All of the humor, the tragedy, the glamorous tales of sudden riches, are reflected in the comprehensive story of wheat speculation in this week's Literary Digest (February 14 issue). It will furnish valuable information to any business man and farmer, to any one—for all of us are affected.

Can the American Farmer Prosper Without a European Market?

THE recommendations of the Agricultural Conference include this: "The American farmer can neither compete with imported agricultural products created through cheap foreign labor and lower standards of living, nor can he compete in foreign markets for the sale of his products at world price levels created by supply and demand arising out of foreign productive standards and foreign buying power."

According to Mark Sullivan in his New York Herald-Tribune Washington correspondence: "The policy which America is moving toward, as yet gropingly, is one of withdrawing to itself a self-contained country, and trying to maintain our high standard of living by avoiding the competition of Europe, in either the role of buyer or of seller. A fairly certain result of that policy should express itself in advocacy of a tariff that will be protective beyond the previous standards of protective tariffs."

"The Pig Is Out of the Bag—and Isn't It a Bird of a Pig!"

exclaims the Omaha World-Herald as it contemplates the tariff recommendations of the Agricultural Commission. And this Nebraska paper continues ironically:

"The farmer is to become prosperous by surrendering his foreign market—which is just now pushing wheat above the two-dollar mark—and depending upon the domestic market. And the domestic market is to be made just as profitable to him as he deserves by means of protective tariffs.

"Down, in other words, with Europe! No more cotton, no more wheat, no more beef, no more pork, for the condemned foreigners. Let them dress themselves in silk and linens and eat frogs.

"And up, UP, UP, with the great American appetite! Let us require every patriotic American to eat two loaves of bread where he ate one before—and by beneficent tariffs let us compel him to pay twice as much for each loaf as he pays now. Let us stuff him with pork-chops and beefsteaks till he bursts. And if he is taken down with dyspepsia, let us limit production till he is well again. If he goes broke trying to pay the price we can, of course, raise his wages, and we can share the wages in the price of the commodity he produces, and the farmer can join with the rest of us in paying the increase.

"And so up and up and around and around, in the merriest, maddest, most enriching whirligig a startled sun ever shone down upon."

For a complete reflex of public opinion upon this most important of subjects to the business man, the farmer, and in fact every citizen, don't fail to read "The Digest" this week.

Washington Outplays Foe In Second Half 13 to 8 But Rally Comes too Late Jayhawkers' Wonderful Work on Long Shots and Fine Guarding Responsible for Victory—Pikers Miss Many Short Tries for the Basket.

By Arthur Schneff.

The University of Kansas basketball team gained a firmer hold on first place in the Missouri Valley Conference race by defeating the Washington University Pikers by a 22-19 score at the Coliseum last night. More than 7500 spectators witnessed the game. It was the largest crowd in the history of local basketball, and one of the largest in Conference history.

The game justified the attendance. It was a fierce struggle, and the final gun found the Pikers at the very crest of a great rally, only three points behind their opponents. Piker speed and courage proved more than a match for the marked physical advantage of the invading team, but steadier scoring on free throws and a surer aim on long shots turned the verdict in favor of the Jayhawks.

Despite the final score, Washington showed a marked superiority in passing and general floor work. Even during the first half, when Kansas did most of her scoring, it was evident that Coach White's men handled the ball more often and better than the Jayhawks.

No Score For Five Minutes. So furious was the playing that neither team was able to score during the last five minutes of the opening period. Kansas' brilliant new forward, Schmidt, and veteran captain, Ackerman, showed deadly accuracy, even when their shots were hurried and at a distance, and the first half ended with Kansas leading, 14 to 6.

The Pikers' floor work was too good to be denied, and in the second half the superiority was emphasized by Washington's outscoring Kansas, 13 to 8. During the last five minutes of the game, with the score 22 to 11 in favor of Kansas, the Pikers scored 8 points while holding the Jayhawks to 1, but the rally came a minute too late to enable the Pikers to score the three points that cost them the game.

Although the entire Washington team played brilliantly, shooting honors went to "Buss" Seago, who gave one of the best performances of his career. Although Schmidt, visiting forward, led the scoring with 11 points, many of them on free throws, Seago led in field goals with 4. He made good on his only chance to score on a foul.

Kansans All Glants. Only one player on the Kansas team, Schmidt, was under six feet in height. The Pikers are physically one of the smallest teams in the valley.

The Jayhawks now have a record of 8 victories and 1 defeat. Washington has won 6 and lost 2 games.

A play by play account of the game follows:

FIRST HALF. After a minute of outscoring and several splendid passes by Minner and Niess, Seago scored from the midline. Kansas took time out. Schmidt scored. Peterson and Ackerman, in quick succession, scored on long shots to give Kansas a lead of 8 to 2. Washington took time out.

Fast passes and Schmidt's fine

SOCCER STRIKE ENDS; SCHEDULE TO BE RESUMED

First Place to Be at Stake in Feature Contest

Under New Agreement Players of Three Teams Will Get Guarantee Each Game.

Ratians Agree to Percentage Split—Millers and Vespers to Battle for Lead.

Acting upon the suggestion of President Winton E. Barker, the franchise holders of the St. Louis Soccer and Exhibition Co., arrived at separate agreements with the players of the local professional league at a meeting last night, as a result of which the players' strike has been called off.

The regular league double-header will be played at St. Louis University Field Sunday afternoon with the Ben Millers and Vespers meeting in the second game. First place in the league, race hinges upon the outcome of this contest for the Ben clubs are tied for the pennant winner this year.

The American Soccer League cup series winner in a national professional title series which will probably be the biggest soccer event in the history of the game in this country.

Games to Be Played Sunday.

President Barker, representing the league officials, and John Redman, fullback and captain of the Ratian Club and president of the players' association, both announced this morning that a satisfactory agreement had been reached and that Sunday's games would be played as scheduled.

Although details of the agreement were not disclosed it is understood that the players of the Ben Millers and Vespers have been guaranteed $10 each for playing and about $7 each in a signing game.

The Ratian club agreed to a different arrangement, accepting a percentage split of the gate receipts because it was felt that the franchise holders could not afford to guarantee the players a fixed sum.

This agreement applies only to the remaining five league games and has no bearing on post-season exhibitions. It was said by Redman that the players' strike was a result of the fact that the players were not being paid for their services.

Players Struck Last Week.

The strike of players was in force last Sunday when the league games were not played. The reason for the demands of the players was general dissatisfaction over the manner in which the receipts were divided.

Phil Kavanagh will referee the Miller-Vesper game Sunday and Eddie Ryan will handle the first game, between the Scullins and Ratians.

Delaney Faces Slattery Tonight

Man Who Knocked Out Berlenbach and Flowers Meet Whirlwind Boxer.

NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—Jack Delaney of Bridgeport, Conn., who has knocked out Paul Berlenbach of Astoria, N. Y., and Tiger Flowers of Atlanta, tonight will face Jimmy Slattery of Buffalo, who outpointed Delaney some months ago.

Slattery is a whirlwind boxer, driving from the hips in the manner of Pal Moran, while Delaney maintains an upright position at all times, guards exceptionally well and loses a crushing right hand whenever opportunity offers.

Paavo Nurmi's Life Story

AS TOLD TO CHARLES E. PARKER

CHAPTER XIII. HOW TO BE A CHAMPION.

(Copyright, 1925.)

PAAVO NURMI'S four-pley triumph in the Colombes games—unparalleled, unapproached in all Olympic history—brought him great joy and also endless annoyances.

Science has been deeply interested in this wonder runner of Finland. Physiologists wished to make an extensive study of his anatomy—his heart, his lungs, his muscular development. Psychologists wished to inquire into the mind that controlled and ordered him in his training and competing efforts—wished to learn of the spirit that drove him on and on while rivals floundered exhausted and dispirited in his wake.

Art also asserted its claims. Painters and sculptors sought to catch his figure in action or in repose. And, quite naturally, the athletic world desired to gain all possible knowledge of the secret or secrets of his phenomenal ability.

Made Use of His Assets.

Had Paavo reacted as would most athletes to this besieging army he would have had to sacrifice his condition and possibly retire from competition. But Paavo had no idea of so doing. He sees no mystery in his racing form, no superhuman accomplishments in his great record.

"My people were very human people," he declares, "and I simply have made use of what nature has given me. I think if you had seen me when I was a youngster—for instance, on the day when as a 10-year-old I ran my first race against time—you would have agreed that I was not formed for great athletic achievements."

I did have, as many other boys had and many others will have, some natural speed, and I chose to develop that natural asset.

Hard Work the Secret.

The developing of it was not fun at all times. It involved forsaking many of the pleasures which others might regard as essential. When my school friends were attending shows or parties I was home in bed. That was a rule I followed most strictly when I was a boy. Early to bed was the order of the day with me, and devoting a portion of each day to running was another regular habit. And when I learned by this training that I could outdo my associates I gained a pleasure that lasted longer than what might have come from my attendance at theaters or parties.

"I think much of my success has come through my very early interest in running. As a boy in my teens I really laid the foundation and by so doing have found it much easier to build up. Had I relied on intermittent periods of training I do not believe it would have been possible. This idea of breaking training after an active season, remaining idle for a period and then starting suddenly and in intensive preparation for the next season, is not a sound one. It means sacrificing much that you have attained and then straining yourself to regain it. And the limited time in athletics that some really great men have had is chargeable, I believe, to that faulty system."

Condition All Important.

"The physical condition is all important to the athlete. Form undoubtedly plays a considerable part. But natural ability and good physical condition will beat form and poor physical condition every time."

As a boy a vegetable diet was ordered for me and I was not permitted to drink tea, coffee or intoxicating liquors. That was the work of my parents and although I since have become a meat eater and have hoped a fondness for coffee, I think that period as a

New Piker Coach Developed Great Eleven in 1924

Bob Higgins' W. Va. Wesleyan Team Defeated Navy, Syracuse and Kentucky.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

BUCKHANNON, W. Va., Feb. 12.—Bob Higgins, who yesterday signed to coach Washington University, came to West Virginia Wesleyan to coach in 1924 following his greatest year at Penn State College when after being named twice to Camp's All-American second team he was named at end on the 1919 mythical eleven.

Higgins introduced his system in West Virginia and enjoyed a successful season, but left the coaching game the next year, going to Canton, where he was captain and coach of the Canton Bulldogs.

He returned to Wesleyan again in 1922 after a year in the professional game and began to build up the system which during the past year gave Wesleyan College the greatest football eleven in its history and brought forth a new gridiron power in the East.

Higgins started the past season handicapped with crutches and the opening game, with West Virginia University, was lost, 21-6, to the team which later defeated W. and J., 40-0. Higgins then had to work with a squad of fewer than 22 men, the coach not being able to hold a scrimmage throughout the entire season. At times but 18 players were fit for duty. Following the game with State Wesleyan defeated Broadbush College, 24-4, Salem College, 41-6, Marietta College, 20-0, and then sent the Navy down to defeat, 10-7.

The next victory of importance was over Syracuse University. A post-season game played with the University of Kentucky, which held Centre to a 7-0 verdict resulted in an overwhelming Wesleyan victory, 24-7. Invited then to play Southern Methodist University, southwestern Conference champions Wesleyans went to Dallas, Tex., on New Year's day and returned home the victors.

Higgins' rise in the college coaching game has been as brilliant as his rise as a player to honor on the all-American teams of 1915, 1916 and 1917. His college career was disturbed in 1917 when the World War came on he volunteered with an infantry unit. He saw service at the front in France and came home a Captain. While overseas Higgins played with the A. E. F. championship football eleven.

At West Virginia Wesleyan the enrollment is about 500, about half of the number being men.

PENNSY RELAY TEAMS ENTER ILLINOIS MEET

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Ill., Feb. 12.—The University of Pennsylvania yesterday filed team entries one and two mile classes of the eighth annual Illinois Relay Carnival here for Feb. 28.

The Red and Blue will pick its mile relay combination from Rogers Snyder, McDonald, Lounsbury, Schenck and Keogh, while the team in the two-mile even will be selected from Starratt, Jensen, Fisher, McLean, Rogers and Barnshaw.

Pennsylvania in 1922 set the present carnival record of 8:01 2-5 for the two-mile relay.

No. 4—The Yankees.

TWO home-run kings of the minor league from Hartford, Conn., and "Nik" Cullop, general all-around man from Omaha, will strive for berths with the New York Yankees this spring. Gehrig bunched out 37 four-baggers in the Eastern League, while Cullop hit 40 in the Western.

According to an announcement from Manager Huggins, Cullop in spite of his slugging—he hit .322 in 1924—will go back to his old trade of catching this spring. With Omaha, Cullop, a St. Louis boy, played first base and in the outfield. He made 192 hits and scored 131 runs. Cullop is a right-hander.

In addition to these two sluggers two of the leading left-handers in the minors will strike to help Herb Pennock, the Yankees' southpaw star. They are Beall, last year with Rochester. Beall topped the International League in effectiveness, being found for an average of 2.76 earned runs a tilt. The other is Ray Francis, who was up before, but in 1924 starred in the Southern League. In the minors these two accounted for 49 victories and dropped but 21 defeats. Maley from Richmond and Schwartz from Atlanta are other hurlers to try out with the Yankees.

Two New Shortstops.

On the list of athletes to be taken South by Huggins are two men who will try to oust the veteran Scott from the shortstop place. They are Wanninger from Augusta, who batted .286 and Hille from Atlanta, who hit .258. Another infielder is Malone, who was once with the Athletics and Dodgers.

In addition to the players with minor league records, Huggins will try out Levi, the Haskell Indian football star, McIntyre, and several semiprofessionals.

Nurmi Sets 3 Records, Ritola Lowers 2-Mile

Pushed by Cox, Ritola Better Mark Held by Nurmi and Shrubbs.

By the Associated Press.

RITOLA, N. Y., Feb. 12.—Willie Ritola, Finnish-American track star, stands out today more prominently than ever as one having a chance to stop the victorious march of Paavo Nurmi, his fellow countryman.

Competing in the 16th Regiment indoor games last night, Ritola smashed Nurmi's two-mile record after the peerless Paavo himself had sped to three new world's indoor marks in a race at one mile and a quarter.

Both races last night were hand-icap affairs. Setting a phenomenal pace over the eight-lap flat track, Ritola covered the two-mile distance in 9:03 4-5.

Beats Outdoor Record.

This mark was four and one-fifth seconds faster than Nurmi's record and nearly six seconds better than the world's outdoor standard, held by Alfred Shrubbs, Englishman, set in 1904.

The Finn led his nearest rival, William Cox, Rochester, schoology star, who had a 75-yard handicap, to the tape by 50 yards after a terrific last lap sprint.

Nurmi was given a great race for half the distance of his event by Jimmy Connolly, former Georgetown star.

Connolly was slightly under the former mile and one-quarter record.

Nurmi's new records, bringing his total up to 22 in 18 races, follow:

	New	Former
2000 yards	4:53 3-5	5:00 4-5
1000 yards	2:22 2-5	2:33
1 1/4 miles	5:22 4-5	5:30 1-5

Willie Plant, American walker, stepped to an easy victory at two miles, overcoming handicaps conceded to several Buffalo competitors, while Alan Heifrich, Penn State, defeated Manville Loch-nicht, pride of Buffalo, and Ray Watson of the Illinois A. C. at 500 meters.

PROTEST IN COMMONS AGAINST WALES' TRIP

Money Is Voted for South
American Journey, Though
Laborite Speaks Against It.

By the Associated Press.
LONDON, Feb. 12.—The House of Commons by a vote of 295 against 87 passed a supplementary budget estimate to cover the expenses of the forthcoming trip of the Prince of Wales to South Africa and South America.

The vote was taken last night after the Chamber had rejected a motion by David Kirkwood, Labor member for the Dumbarton Burghs, to reduce the £15,000 ($75,000) which it has been estimated will be required for the trip. The vote on this question was 204 against 99.

In the division against the motion of Kirkwood, former Premier MacDonald, Sidney Webb and William Adamson, as well as James H. Thomas, Labor members, voted with the Government. Stephen Walsh, Noel F. Buxton and Arthur Henderson, also Laborites, abstained from voting.

During the debate the Government sprang a surprise by an announcement that Uruguay and Chile also had invited the Prince of Wales to visit those countries. The Government spokesman, Walter Edwards Guinness, said it was hoped these invitations would be accepted.

Kirkwood protested against spending the nation's resources on the trip of the Prince of Wales while there was so much poverty at home. It was noteworthy that neither in his fiery attack nor in the speeches of the other members supporting him was any word of personal animus spoken against the Prince.

Kirkwood appeared to be suffering under the annoyance that on the occasion of one of the Prince's visits to Glasgow the Prince had not responded to his invitation to inspect Glasgow's slum districts. The chairman had much difficulty in keeping Kirkwood at the point, and during the speech the proceeding became rather raucous. The fact of the chairman, however, averted the further inflaming of the temper of the House, and Guinness poured oil on the troubled water by admitting that the Prince should interest himself in internal problems, such as Kirkwood had mentioned.

At the same time Guinness paid handsome tribute to the Prince's constant keenness regarding his princely duties.

Kirkwood's strictures caused more laughter than indignation, and what was considered by some of the members the only regrettable note came with insinuations from Kirkwood and others that financial interests were involved in the Prince's tour.

At an instance, George Lansbury, Labor member, said he had yet to learn that it was a function of royalty to go around the world as commercial bagmen, doing trade. The only sort of trade the Prince of Wales seemed to have done on his American tour, Lansbury added, was the trade of amusement. He was going on his forthcoming tour, as far as the speaker could see, to have a good time. He did not grudge the Prince the trip, but it would be a standing disgrace to spend money for the trip while thousands were on the border line of subsistence.

MEDITATIONS MARRIED WOMAN

By HELLOWLAND

HOW TO BE A MAN.
NEVER try to flatter a man. It is not perfectly natural, and he will flatter himself.

Indeed, it is almost impossible to flatter him!

He is flattered if you are for his virtues—and equally flattered if you love him for his faults.

He is flattered if you are—and more flattered if you are afraid of him.

He is flattered if you are good and noble and honorable—and thrilled with vanity if you are a "dangerous devil."

He is frankly flattered if you like to dance with him—and secretly flattered if you "sit out" his dances and "talk to him."

He is flattered if you tell him his eyes are nice and honest—and also if you tell him he is glib and wicked.

He is flattered if you are kind—and more flattered if you reproach him for his kindness.

He is pleased if Nature has naturally curly hair—and thanks Heaven if she didn't!

He is flattered if you compare him to Napoleon or General Pershing—and equally pleased to compare him to Jack Dempsey, Al Jolson, or the blond in the advertisements.

He is delighted if you tell him he looks well in evening clothes—and equally flattered if you say that he is "not the evening clothes type."

Oh yes, he is ALWAYS!

If you telephone him, saying after him—and if you never telephone him, you are "make him run after you."

If you marry him, he says that it was "for love"—and if you marry somebody else, probably for consolation."

A woman is forever asked if she likes the way she looks, if he admires her as much as she still loves her.

But a man never bothers with any such foolish questions.

He knows, HE knows, HE knows!

HOW TO SOLVE A CROSS WORD PUZZLE.

Each number in the puzzle indicates the position of the first letter of a word.

Each word reads from left to right (horizontal) or downward (vertical), according to position. Lettered in correctly, words that cross will interlock.

Each number in the white squares also refers to a definition in the accompanying table.

Each definition suggests a word possessing the exact number of letters to fit the white space allotted to it.

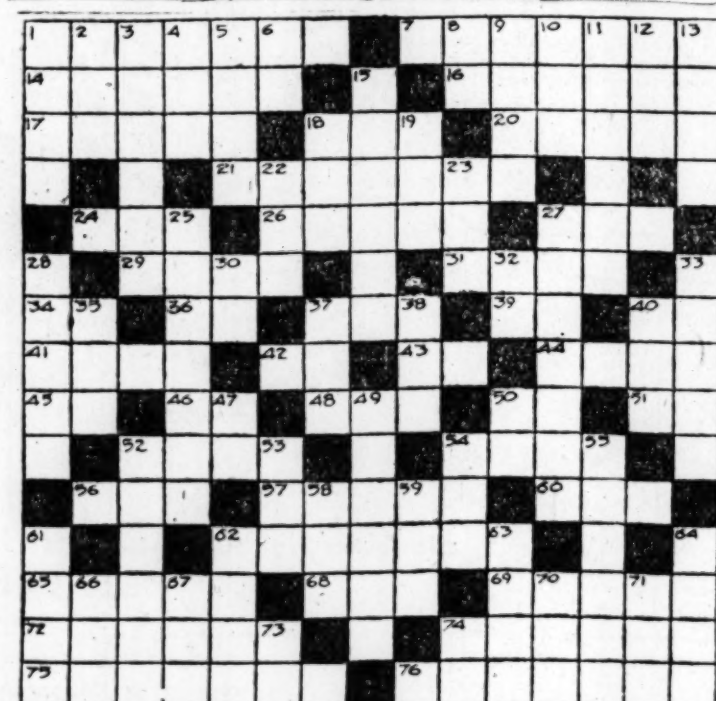

Each white space is to receive one letter only. Words start only in numbered squares.

FASHION FRILLS

LONDON.—Perhaps as a result of the Wembley Exposition, the products of the British colonies are in high favor just now. Ostrich feathers from South Africa, for example, are worn wherever it is possible to wear them, on coats, wraps, cloaks, hats and on the cuffs or the really smart gloves.

PARIS.—Silks and chiffon are vying with woolen materials for pre-eminence in the spring tailors. The new tailored suits are almost universally distinguished by the short two-button double-breasted jackets with notched lapels. Deep folds are replacing pleats in skirt construction.

GOOD-NIGHT STORIES

By BLANCHE SILVER
ILLUSTRATED BY MADGE GEYER

Bobby Has a Chat With Daddy Camel.

(The Editor of the Woman's Page of the Post-Dispatch would be glad to know how readers like the Good Night Stories by Blanche Silver. Write him a postcard, or call him by telephone, Olive 6600.)

"GODDNESS!" Bobby exclaimed, as he stopped beside the fence that held the great, tall camel prisoner. "You're anything but pretty."

"We can't all be blessed with good looks," laughed Mr. Camel, politely. "There are very few of my neighbors who can boast of beauty. But why worry over such trifles as looks? If one can be of use to the world, that's far better. Don't you think so?"

"It certainly is the best," replied Bobby. "I'm sorry if I hurt your feelings by saying you were not good looking. You see I never dreamed you could understand me."

"That's the way with most folks who stop to look at me," laughed Mr. Camel. "They make terrible remarks about me. I'm quite sure they couldn't be so unkind if they knew I could understand them. But I should worry! You can't always judge by the way a fellow dresses. Coming right down to facts, we camels have it over a good many animals."

"I'll say you have," laughed Bobby. "If it is true that you can go for days without food or drink."

"Well, in a sense, we do," replied Mr. Camel. "See this hump on my back? Well, there was a time, yes, a good many times, while I lived in the desert, working for my Arab master, that my hump disappeared entirely. I had eaten it up. Not chewed it, you understand, but the fat in it kept me going for days. My stomach is arranged so I can also keep a water supply. I'll bet there are not 10 boys out of 12 who can name the things a camel is good for. Can you name any?"

"See This Hump on My Back!"

"One thing I do know," laughed Bobby. "You are great to carry bundles across the desert. But—"

"That's only a drop in the bucket," giggled Mr. Camel. "Why, in the first place my flesh is good to eat. The female camel's milk is almost as good as that of a cow. From our hair they make wool. Of course it's rather coarse, but it is long, tough, stout and easily worked. They take our skins and make garments, coverings and tents. What do you think of that?"

"Well, it's all news to me," laughed Bobby. "You certainly are good for something besides carrying things on your back."

"And still that's not all," chuckled Mr. Camel. "They use our sinews for manufacturing harness. Camel leather is almost as good as any other leather. There isn't another animal that can boast of all those things, added to strength, swiftness and endurance, like a camel. I can go for eight and 10 days, without water. I do not worry when I hear folks say I'm not good looking. I'd rather be useful than beautiful any day."

Then like a flash Mr. Camel disappeared around the stones in the pen and Bobby couldn't coax him out any more.

Molasses Crumb Pie.

Line a deep pie crust with good short paste and finish the top by marking with the floured tines of a fork. Beat two fresh eggs and add a cupful of sugar, a cupful of molasses and a half cupful of rich milk, two tablespoonfuls of dry crumbs, a tablespoonful of butter, a saltspoonful of grated nutmeg, and a quarter cupful of vinegar. Partially bake the crust, then pour the mixture into the shell, after it is thoroughly mixed. Bake in a moderate oven until the filling is firm and the crust done.

Each year, fewer desks are vacant on stormy days. There is less sickness among children. The growing generation is the healthiest this country has ever known. The reason is that....

Every healthy child has a sensible mother

WRITTEN on the rosy cheeks of every healthy youngster is the message for all to read—"I have a sensible mother."

It is she who imposes the kindly tyranny of simple meals on time, of early to bed, dry shoes and stockings, warm underwear, rubbers, clean teeth.

All she asks for each twenty-four hour day of responsibility and loving care are sparkling eyes, ruddy cheeks, sturdy little bodies—the promise of useful, happy lives.

It is sensible mothers—health doctors every one—who have made Lifebuoy Health Soap the most widely used toilet soap in the world.

They know the creamy, antiseptic lather of Lifebuoy is a sure, every-day protection to child health. It gently removes from little hands germs which may cause colds or fevers. It keeps skin soft and radiant with health.

Sensible mothers—Lifebuoy is the health soap. Use it for the children's sake—before meals, after play or school and before going to bed.

Fired because he was always tired

"DROWSY BILL," they called him—a lifeless, eternally tired, old-young man. He tried hard enough, but his energies always sagged before the job was done. One day Bill was missing . . . fired.

In every walk of life you'll find men and women who are fighting constipation—the dread disease which robs the body of its energy and strength. But thank goodness, there is pleasant, safe, permanent relief from constipation—Kellogg's ALL-BRAN.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is what doctors call a bulk food. As it journeys through the body its fiber remains unchanged. Therefore, it can sweep the intestine clean. ALL-BRAN also absorbs and carries moisture through the intestinal tract, thus stimulating regular, healthy action. ALL-BRAN urges nature to act normally—something that habit-forming pills and drugs can never do.

You'll like Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. Serve it with milk or cream, sprinkled over other cereals or cooked with hot cereals. Delicious with fruits. Try it in soups too. Also use the many recipes given on every package. If eaten regularly, Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is guaranteed to bring permanent relief or the grocer returns the purchase price. Eat two tablespoonfuls daily—in chronic cases, with every meal.

KNOW THE TRUTH ABOUT BRAN

To be effective, bran fiber must go through the various digestive processes without submitting to any of them. It must pass through the entire alimentary tract without its form being changed.

What happens when a bran food is eaten? After the saliva has acted upon it, it passes through the stomach and into the intestine where every part which is not fiber is absorbed.

In ALL-BRAN the quantity of fiber is so great that it furnishes bulk enough to prevent and relieve constipation.

In a part-bran food, the quantity of fiber is so small that there is only a puny amount to do a Herculean task.

ALL-BRAN brings sure results. Demand it.

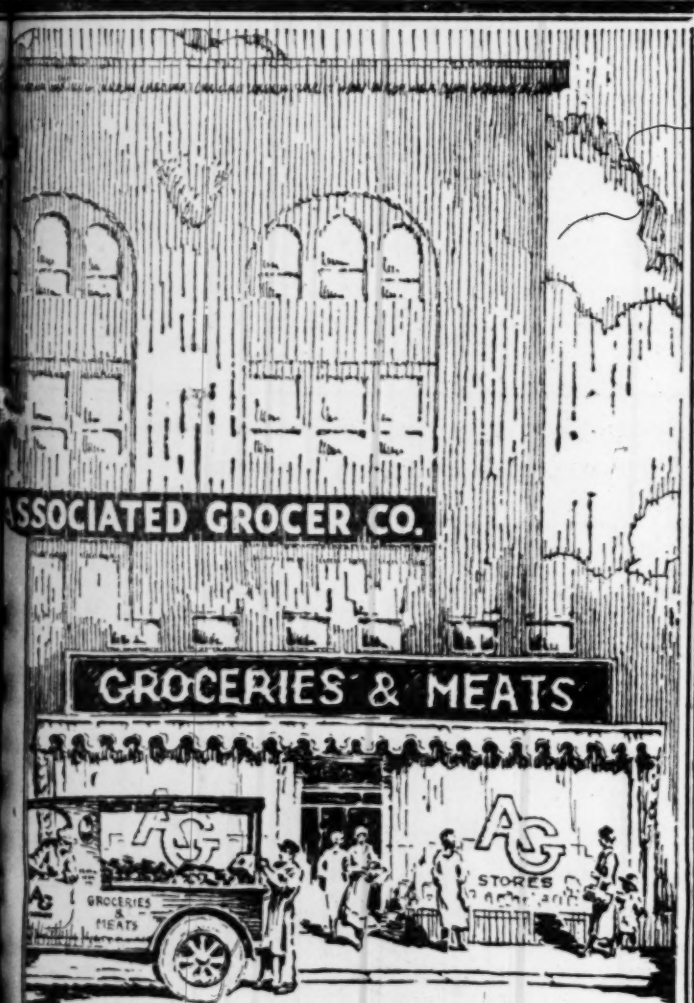

Be careful! Only ALL-BRAN brings sure results. Be sure to get Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. A part-bran product is only partially effective—maybe not at all.

Kellogg's is the original and only ALL-BRAN. Doctors recommend it. All grocers sell it. Buy a package today. Note how much better you'll feel in a week. Also served in leading restaurants.

Back of our A.G. Stores is our wholesale house The Associated Grocer Company

Back of both is this great ideal—a belief that the service and accommodations of individual grocer merchants, so labor-saving to the hurried housewife, should be within the reach of every housewife, and at lowest prices.

To cut prices and give service, too, is a big undertaking for St. Louis individual grocers. It can only be done through huge quantity buying.

Back of our three hundred A.G. Stores is our own wholesale house, The Associated Grocer Company. Quantity buying there saves thousands of dollars for us, and for the thousands of women who trade daily at the A.G. Store in each neighborhood.
